MURDERS SOLDIER ON ALCATRAZ ISLAND, THEN COMMITS SUICIDE

HURLS RIVAL TO DEATH ON SHARP ROCKS

Quarrel Between Soldiers Over Money Has Fatal Result

Following a quarrel between the two said to have been caused by the discovery of irregularities in the quartermaster's department, Quartermaster Sergeant Roy Ford late last night threw Army Clerk Thomas Mullally from a third story window of the barracks on Alcatraz island and, after ascertaining that Mullally had been killed by the fall, rushed into a storeroom at the army post and blew out his brains with a revolver.

GUILTY OF THEFT.

The murder and suicide is the direct aftermath of an investigation now in progress at the naval station in which it is alleged that both Ford and Mullally had been guilty of defalcation in the handling of naval supplies.

Ford and Mullally were alone in a room on the third floor of the barracks at the time of the tragedy. The quartermaster sergeant and his victim were heard struggling in the room.

Mullally was heard to scream and the next instant attaches at the barracks in the grounds surrounding the place saw a body shoot from the window and fall in an inanimate heap below.

BLOWS OUT BRAINS

Before anybody could reach the room from which Mullally had been thrown Ford rushed down stairs ran to where the body lay and after ascertaining that Mullally was dead, ran frantically to a storeroom on the first floor of the barracks and securing a pistol there blew out his brains.

MULLALY'S NECK BROKEN

Following the discovery of the body of Mullally, the investigation into the alleged defalcation of Ford and Mullally was intensified. The bodies of both men were found in the same room, and the investigation is now in progress at the naval station.

RECOMMENDS $315,000 FOR THE IMPROVEMENT OF OAKLAND HARBOR

Chief Engineer Marshall, in His Annual Report, Urges Liberal Expenditures for San Francisco Bay

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 12.—Among the recommendations made today by Colonel W. L. Marshall, chief of United States Engineering Department, in his annual report is $315,000 for improvements to the Oakland, Cal., harbor.

The harbors at Sacramento, Stockton, San Luis Obispo, and other coast cities, are also awarded various amounts in Colonel Marshall's recommendation.

JUROR ILL AND DE LANCEY'S TRIAL IS HALTED

Herman Von Duren Stricken With Pneumonia and Is in Serious Condition

After having occupied the attention of Superior Judge Proctor in court today, covering a part of the trial of John S. De Lancey, the juror Herman Von Duren was stricken with pneumonia and is in a serious condition.

OTHER JURORS REPORT

The other jurors in the trial of John S. De Lancey reported that they were in good health and were able to continue with the trial. The trial is expected to continue for several more days.

UNTIL NEXT WEDNESDAY

The trial of John S. De Lancey is expected to continue until next Wednesday. The jury is expected to return a verdict by that time.

ALARMING SYMPTOMS

The symptoms of pneumonia in Herman Von Duren are considered alarming by the medical staff. He is being treated with the best medical care available.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12—

Harbor facilities in San Francisco bay are to be improved by government appropriation, if the present plans of Colonel W. L. Marshall, chief of the United States engineering department, prevail. In his annual report, made public today, Colonel Marshall recommends a number of appropriations for harbor improvement at many points on the Pacific Coast, including $315,000 for improvements in San Francisco bay.

Other appropriations ranging from $500 up to $100,000 are recommended for other coast cities. It is reported that estimates are being prepared as a basis for appropriations for the same purpose in 1910.

The largest recommendation so far made is for improvement of the mouth of the Columbia river, $1,000,000 and the second largest is for the improvement of the mouth of the San Francisco bay, $315,000.

THE GIRL QUESTION

COURT DECIDES ELECTIONS WILL GO ON AS ARRANGED

Judge Ellsworth, After Hearing Petition for Injunction, Sustains the City's Demurrer

Superior Judge John Ellsworth early this afternoon sustained the demurrer of the City of Oakland to the petition for an injunction against the holding of the kind and annexation elections. The court was crowded with citizens who had come to see the decision.

The petitioners, who were the city of Oakland, sought to prevent the elections from being held. They argued that the elections were illegal and that the city had no right to hold them.

Judge Ellsworth, after hearing the arguments of both sides, sustained the city's demurrer. He ruled that the elections were legal and that the city had the right to hold them.

The decision was a victory for the city of Oakland. It allowed the elections to proceed as planned. The petitioners were disappointed with the result.

The elections are expected to be held on November 15th. They will be held at the same time and place as the previous elections.

WATSON CANNOT PAY $40 ALIMONY

Cashier-Spouse of Society Woman Only Gets $70 a Month

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—William J. Watson, former treasurer for the First National Bank, started in Judge Morgan's court this morning through his attorney that he could not afford to pay the $40 a month demanded by his wife Genevieve as alimony pending his suit for divorce.

The sensational charges contained in the suit alleging cruelties on the part of the wife were revealed about ten days ago, and the matter was up today in connection with alimony. It appears that Watson is now receiving only $70 a month in alimony, and is willing to compromise with his wife and pay $40 a month.

Task of Securing Jury is Progressing Slowly in Auburn Courtroom

(By LYNN ETHEL WILSON) AUBURN, Nov. 12.—Twelve talesmen were examined in the Alma Bell murder trial today, two being passed subject to peremptory challenge. This exhausted the special venire summoned yesterday and the two jurors were sent out to summon another venire of twenty-five.

There now are five men in the jury box subject to peremptory challenge, which will be exercised when another juror is passed temporarily.

Thus about ninety talesmen have been examined and only six sworn to try the case.

AUBURN, Nov. 12.—Craving for lace stockings and a "petticoat that rustles," Alma Bell, the girl on trial for the murder of young Joseph Arnes, made last night in the county jail, where she is confined a sleepless one for the other prisoners, as she paced her cell long after her light was extinguished, railing against Sheriff McAuliffe, who, in buying her a supply of wearing apparel at the expense of the county yesterday afternoon, refused to comply with her demand for dainty lingerie and silk skirts.

"I won't wear stuffy old cotton things," asserted the girl when fatherly Judge Arnes, who is presiding in the case, was summoned in the hope that he could exercise a pacifying influence. "I want pretty things. I have always loved them, and now that I have nothing else I don't see why I can't have open-work stockings at least," and the girl's slayer of the lover who betrayed her threw herself on her narrow cot in a very feminine outburst of "nerves."

SHORN OF HER TRINKETS.

Since coming to the prison Alma Bell has been forced to lay aside the exaggerated pair of French heel shoes and brilliant studded hair combs which she wore when arrested, though much against her will, and in retaliation for the ruling of the law, she spends hours before the tiny glass which, propped on a box roughly covered with gaily flowered cretonne, she has improvised into the semblance of a dressing table, doing her hair into elaborate coiffures, and polishing her nails with a silver buffer which the dead man is said to have given her.

Refusing to eat the county jail fare, her meals are sent in from a nearby restaurant and though she dines but twice a day, her appetite is good.

WATER RIGHTS ARE CONSERVED

Secretary Bailing Withdraws From Disposition More Than 8000 Acres of Land

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Secretary E. A. Tamm today issued an order for the conservation of the water rights of lands without water, for the purpose of determining what water rights will be conserved in the future. The order was issued in response to a request from the United States Reclamation Service, which has been authorized to acquire water rights in the future. The order states that the Secretary will not acquire water rights in the future unless it is necessary to do so for the purpose of conserving the water rights of lands without water. The order also states that the Secretary will not acquire water rights in the future unless it is necessary to do so for the purpose of conserving the water rights of lands without water.

time, are beginning to tell on her.

Her mother worn out by the strain of the shooting and unable to journey to the courthouse over the rough twelve-mile road which intervenes between her daughter's prison and her home in the heavy rain which has been falling steadily since Tuesday morning, has not been in the courtroom during the past week.

This morning Mrs. Koonze, the accused girl's sister, who is only a few years her senior, sat by her side during the long morning session, which began at 8 o'clock, and was to all appearances visibly affected by the questioning of talesmen.

Women flock to cell. Mrs. Koonze is a rather striking woman of the country-bred type and, black coat, she was the subject of considerable curiosity among the curious spectators who daily throng the courtroom.

grasp in all its stern force the law of inevitable punishment. Like a little child cowering in the dark, she realizes blindly that she has done something which will forever make her a pariah on the earth. A further investigation into the history of the girl's father, the late "Pike" Bell, reveals the fact that he was of an intensely jealous nature, and that though his wife, a miner whom he shot in 1875 on an Oakland ferry-boat, was his most serious escapee, he has been involved in gun fights a record of which stretches clear across this State.

QUARRELS WITH MEN. Deputy Sheriff Dibenener, a pioneer resident of this vicinity, who knew Bell well during the many years of his residence here, asserts that on a number of occasions, the dates and details of which have sunk into the obscurity of the past, the dead miser quarreled with numerous men because of their attentions to his wife. Three years prior to his death, which occurred some ten years ago, Bell it is said, followed his wife and eldest daughter to a dance which was given at the town hall here, and because of his insidious jealousy because Mrs. Bell, while watching her daughter dance, talked to a number of men she knew burst into the hall flourishing a loaded revolver, threatening with loud curses to "shoot up" the place.

He was placed under arrest for disturbing the peace, but was afterwards released on bail. On another occasion it is said he chased his wife from their home, which is twelve miles out from this place, after a heated battle, and locking the doors and windows of the house, threatened to shoot her if she returned.

Having nowhere else to go, the frightened woman, affected an entrance through the back door with the aid of her older daughter and Bell, learning of the trick played upon him, in the morning went out into the garden and fired four shots at the side of the house narrowly missing the inhuman of the room in which Mrs. Bell was hidden.

GIRL USED TO FIREARMS. Alma, it is asserted, has been used to guns ever since her earliest infancy, and the assertion that a few days prior to the shooting she was seen in a wood practicing with a pistol is denied by her brother Lester, who says: "Why, Alma could shoot when she was a little girl, and though she has never made any attempt to use of firearms, she has been used to seeing them around all her life."

Bank Robbed and Cashier Wounded. LAWRENCE, Kas. Nov. 12.—The State Bank at Lawrence, Kas., was robbed of all its available cash at 3 o'clock today by a man who shot Assistant Cashier Port Starr and escaped. Cashier Wilson declared to the police that the robber was Earl Bullock who robbed the bank last September after locking Wilson in the vault.

A posse started in pursuit. Starr was shot in the arm and is still alive. It is believed he will recover. In a recent robbery Bullock who is but 19 years of age shot and fatally wounded Policeman Pringle in Lawrence. It is today no trace of Bullock has been found. In the first robbery he obtained $1000.

HOPES FOR HER FREEDOM. "If I am set free—and, oh, I hope I will be—I am going back to the ranch. There is plenty to do there and I don't suppose I will be bothered much by friends anxious to renew their acquaintance."

There was a peculiar note of bitterness in her voice and the girl, suddenly realizing that perhaps she had said too much, added hastily: "Not of course, that people blame me. I don't care. That only—well a girl is never the same after she has gone through a trial like this."

And so after four months of starvation and a long and wearying journey together with a long drearying of hearing herself derided and listening to the tearing apart of her character in an attempt to lay bare her throbbing heart and brain and offer up to justice her innermost thoughts Alma Bell has learned at last the rick of the gallows in the face four days of the conventions which demand that a woman keep herself unscrupled.

JUST A MOUNTAIN GIRL. She was just a primitive mountain girl ignorant not of vice but of its consequences when, hardly four months ago officers of the law found her crouching on a lonely road near where she had murdered the man who had betrayed her. Now she is a woman and if she still knows nothing of the high laws of existence and still fails to realize the supreme justice which demands that she pay for her crime she at least has come to

FINDS $1775 'ROLL'; GETS $1 REWARD

St. Louis Tourist Munificently Rewards Honest Hotel Chambermaid.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12. — When Lena Schumacher, a chambermaid at the Hotel Argonaut, went to clean up one of the rooms yesterday morning she discovered the door of the room was unlocked and a wallet, containing $1775, was on the table. The girl was frightened at the sight of so much money and immediately sent for Assistant Manager Dixon and turned the wallet over to him.

Five hours later W. E. Farnum, a tourist from St. Louis, strolled up to one of the room clerks and inquired whether anybody had found "a bit of money." Pressed for a description of his loss it was found that the money was his and it was restored to him.

So overcome was the guest at finding his bank roll intact that he made the girl a present of $1 as a reward for her honesty.

MISS ILLINGTON MAY MARRY HERE

Rumor Has It That Actress Will Wed Edward Bowes in This City.

TACOMA, Nov. 12. — Tacoma's Mrs. Grady believes Margaret Illington will become the bride of Edward Bowes, the Tacoma millionaire real estate dealer, within the next week. Bowes is not here to confirm or deny the report. He quietly left town several days ago. At his office it is said he did not leave word as to his destination.

That Bowes and Miss Illington have been in constant communication with each other by mail during the residence of the actress in Reno is declared by their friends here. The recent purchase by Bowes of one of Tacoma's finest homes and its refurbishing by him are cited as added evidence of his matrimonial intentions. It is believed here the wedding will take place in Oakland, Bowes' former home.

KILLS MAN WHO CALLED ON WIFE

Husband and Affinity Fight Pistol Duel; Latter Is Shot Through Head.

SANTA CRUZ, Nov. 12. — News was received here yesterday of a shooting at Valencia, twelve miles from this city, which resulted in the death of Edward Pierce at the hands of John P. Garst. After a desperate duel between the two, it is said that the man who has been known to Sheriff Howard Trafton, Garst declared that he had acted in self defense.

The quarrel originated over the wife of Garst who was a witness of the shooting. Pierce called at the Garst home and was ordered to leave. According to the story told by the Sheriff, Garst, Pierce retired to the barn and began to fire at Garst, who returned the fire until the shots in his revolver were exhausted, when he fired a 22-caliber rifle through a glass door and shot Pierce twice in the head. The wounded man lived until today.

A coroner's jury late this afternoon exonerated Garst. The jury seemed to be satisfied from the evidence at the inquest upon Pierce's body that Pierce came to the Garst home with a malicious intent to kill Garst. According to the testimony of Mrs. Garst, Pierce tried to induce her to leave with him, and she herself ordered him from the house.

EXPECT BIG RECEIPTS FROM CHURCH BAZAAR

FRUITVALE, Nov. 12. — The annual bazaar of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Fruitvale Congregational Church will be held Friday and Saturday, November 16-17, in Armory Hall, Sixteenth street and Fruitvale avenue. Many of the leading women of this city will take part in the annual affair, for which active preparations are being made by them for the coming event. In past years the proceeds derived from bazaar greatly swelled the church fund and it is believed that in charge of the 1923 annual benefit that it will financially exceed that of previous years.

Among those who will preside over the booths are Mrs. W. H. Hackett, chairman; fancy work, Mrs. E. Day; candy, Mrs. Hugo Storch; flowers, Mrs. C. C. Martin; comforters, Mrs. E. Irwin; home cooking, Mrs. Burton M. Palmer; coffee, Mrs. Annie Pinkenette; domestic articles, Mrs. Barnard. The assistants will be Mrs. L. R. Robertson, Mrs. H. K. Fletcher, Mrs. Truett, Mrs. J. Spencer Riley and Mrs. Frank Howard Seelye.

NEVADA COUNTERFEITER CAUGHT IN GRASS VALLEY

GRASS VALLEY, Nov. 12. — Walter Grant, alias Fred Smith, John A. Thomas and other names, was arrested here Wednesday night and identified by telegraph yesterday as a Goldfield, Nev., counterfeiter who escaped from the City Prison in Reno last week just before a Federal officer arrived to take him to Carson for trial. He will be taken to Nevada.

Grant was exposed by his partner, named Graves, to whom he had given a bogus check to cash and who was trapped when he attempted to do so. His intended victim being Dr. Carl P. Jones.

FIREBURG STARTS BLAZE IN FIRE CHIEF'S SHOP

PETALUMA, Nov. 12. — The Petaluma fire department has been puzzled for some time over the origin of several disastrous fires in this city.

Yesterday Fire Chief William Hartman discovered a pile of shavings smoldering in his wagon and repair shop. He kicked the burning mass into the street and found phosphorus adhering to his boot. A fire is suspected of this and the former crimes.

Chronic Insomnia and Indigestion

THE ONE IS ALWAYS ASSOCIATED WITH AND CAUSED BY THE OTHER.

Sleep has been fittingly called "the nature's sweet restorer." It is a condition in which the involuntary functions, such as nutrition, circulation, respiration, etc., go on as usual, while the voluntary powers are in repose, and the system undergoes needed repairs. No one has ever been known to live longer than three weeks without sleep. It is as necessary in physical economy as food and drink.

Insomnia, or chronic sleeplessness, is a symptom with which nearly every sufferer from dyspepsia is annoyed, either constantly or at frequent and irregular intervals. This inability to sleep normally is a very prominent manifestation of indigestion, and exasperates the trouble in different forms. In some cases sleep may come at its accustomed time, but it does not bring repose, and the person awakens entirely too soon, and is unable to fall asleep again. In others the victim lies awake practically all night, tossing and rolling, and finally drops into a troubled and unrefreshing slumber at daybreak. Still others, though they may apparently sleep soundly, are annoyed with the incubus, or nightmare, with its horrors of overwhelming waves, falls from precipitous heights and attacks by infuriated and implacable monsters.

All of these distressing symptoms are traceable to an irritated and enfeebled stomach, and the same is true of grinding the teeth, and twinges and jerking of the muscles during sleep.

Insomnia is rarely a disease by itself, but is nearly always a symptom of another disease, such as dyspepsia, and in treating this complaint, many persons in their efforts to "get the good of sleep," resort to the use of such hypnotics, sedatives, soporifics and narcotics as the bromides, chloral hydrate, Dover powders and even morphine.

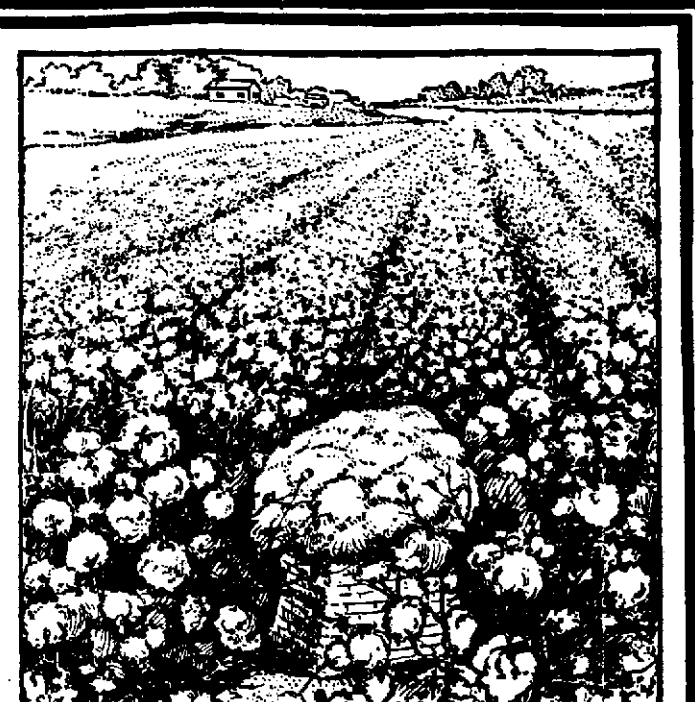

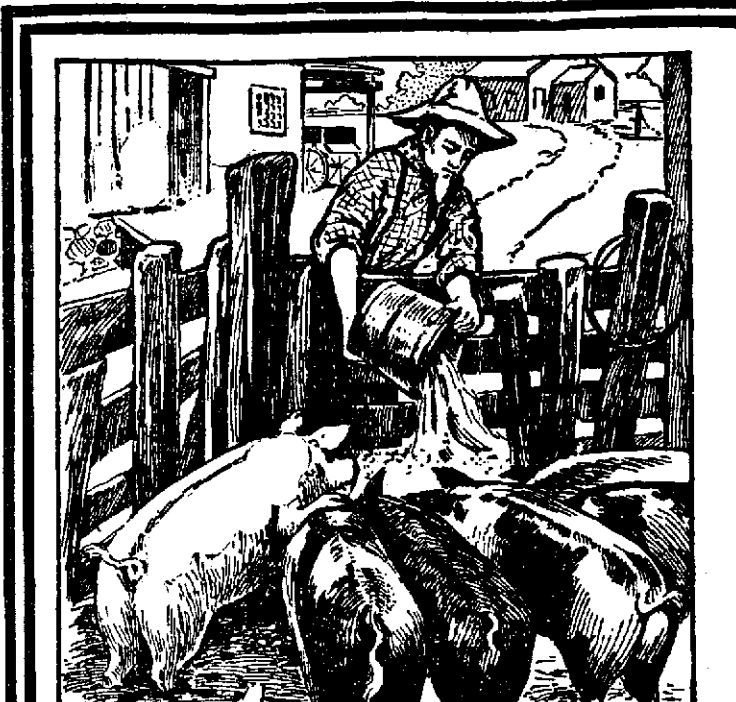

No greater mistake than this could well be made, and the result is such as such drugs has caused many a sudden death, while in other cases, even moderate use has set up an incurable drug-using habit among those who resorted to the use of "sleeping powders."

To cure insomnia or sleeplessness the object should be to remove the cause, and as dyspepsia is the underlying cause in a large percentage of cases, no better or safer remedy can be employed than STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS. By digesting every particle of food in the stomach, the active and exciting cause of insomnia is cut short at its source and removed.

These tablets contain only wholesome ingredients, and there is no danger of falling into drug-using habits from their use. Every sufferer from insomnia should avoid the egregious error of using hypnotic drugs, as they never cure the trouble, but only make matters worse in the end.

Begin taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at once, using one or two after each meal, and the same number at bed time. It is also well to have a box of these powerful digestives close at hand during the night, so that in case you are troubled with dyspepsia-insomnia, uneasiness in the stomach, or any other symptoms of indigestion, quick relief may be obtained.

Purchase a package from your druggist at once for 50 cents, and get rid of your name and address for sample package. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Building, Marshall, Mich.

The Swine or the Flower?

Oh me! I saw a huge and loathsome sty,
Wherein a drove of wallowing swine were barred,
Whose banquet shocked the nostril and the eye;
Then spoke a voice, "Behold the source of LARD!"

I fled, and saw a field that seemed at first
One glistening mass of roses pure and white,
With dewy buds 'mid dark green foliage nursed;
And as I lingered o'er the lovely sight,
The summer breeze that cooled that Southern scene,
Whispered, "Behold the source of COTTOLENE!"

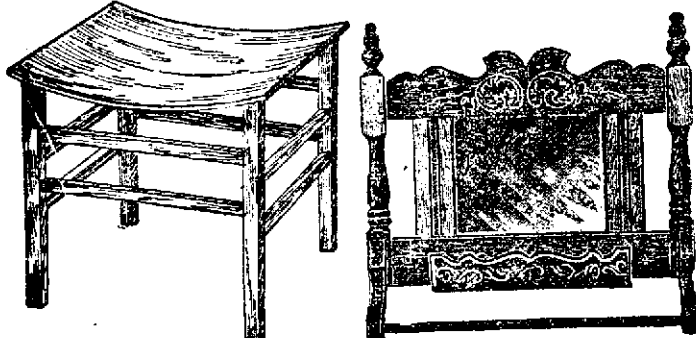

"Nature's Gift from the Sunny South"

COTTOLENE is a pure and wholesome frying and shortening medium, made from refined cottonseed oil. There is not an ounce of hog fat in it to make food unwholesome, greasy and indigestible. As evidence of its superiority, COTTOLENE received Grand Prize (highest possible award) at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

tion; and Gold Medals (also representing highest awards in each case) at the Charleston Exposition, the Paris Exposition, and the Chicago World's Fair. In fact, in every case where COTTOLENE has been exhibited in competition with other cooking fats, it has invariably been granted the highest award.

MUCH INTEREST IN KU KLUX DRAMA

"The Traitor," at Ye Liberty, Draws More Than Quota of Theater Goers

Because the public in general shows much interest in the "carpet bag" reconstruction days of the Southland and because of the comments which greeted its predecessor, "The Traitor," this production at the Ye Liberty Theatre of "The Traitor," Thomas Dixon Jr.'s sequel to the great story of the Ku Klux Klan, is attracting unusual interest among theatergoers. Packed houses have greeted the Bishop players every night this week in their rendition of the play, and because of the intense interest which the public takes in anything pertaining to the South, the same crowded conditions will follow throughout the week.

IS ROMANTIC STORY.

In its entirety, "The Traitor" is undoubtedly one of the prettiest dramas dealing with life south of the Mason and Dixon line yet produced. While the play lacks the harsh sentiment of the earlier production at the hands of the Liberty Theatre of "The Traitor," Thomas Dixon Jr.'s sequel to the great story of the Ku Klux Klan, is attracting unusual interest among theatergoers. Packed houses have greeted the Bishop players every night this week in their rendition of the play, and because of the intense interest which the public takes in anything pertaining to the South, the same crowded conditions will follow throughout the week.

MOON PASSES THROUGH EARTH'S SHADOW NOV. 26

The moon will pass through the shadow of the earth on the evening of November 26 and the morning of the 27th, and be totally eclipsed. The times given below are for Oakland and are given in standard Pacific time.

Moon enters penumbra, November 26, 11:11.0 p. m.; total eclipse begins, November 27, 0:13.5 a. m.; middle of eclipse, November 27, 0:54.6 a. m.; total eclipse ends, November 27, 1:35.6 a. m.; moon leaves shadow, November 27, 2:32.2 a. m.; moon leaves penumbra, November 27, 3:31.6 a. m.

The times are to the nearest tenth of a minute. It is impossible to observe the exact time that the moon enters the penumbra, the time being known by calculation, but the average eye should be able to detect that something unusual is taking place by about twenty minutes to 11 o'clock.

The moon will enter the earth's shadow from the west.

REPORT OF SHORT CROP CAUSES BOOM IN WHEAT

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—George M. LeCount, an expert crop observer sent by a big Chicago house to investigate conditions in Argentina, sent a cable report this morning from Rosario, in the interior, and it created the greatest commotion in the wheat trade in many weeks.

LeCount's cable leaves December prices up to $1.05½ the first hour.

There has been talk of large December holdings in the Argentine and others account an expert crop observer sent by a big Chicago house to investigate conditions in Argentina, sent a cable report this morning from Rosario, in the interior, and it created the greatest commotion in the wheat trade in many weeks.

COUNCIL EVADES PLAYGROUND ISSUE

Defers Naming of Directors in Case Where Women Demand Majority Quota

The majority of matters before the council committees which met last night went over for one week. Action on the most important was deferred until the next meeting, as was the naming of five directors to the playground commission, of which the women of the Oakland club believe they are entitled to.

The ordinance creating the position of fire marshal was also continued one week.

There was a recommendation by the street committee that all wires be placed under ground on Jones street between San Pablo and Telegraph avenues.

STEAL FURNITURE: COME BACK AND TAKE HOUSE

AUBURN, Nov. 12.—Not satisfied with carrying off the furniture and other contents, thieves, it is alleged, stole the dwelling of J. C. Cullen, an actual resident of Auburn. Golden lives near Auburn. He had been away for several days, and upon returning home yesterday he found his house empty. His home was not a pretentious affair, but neither was it so small that it could be carried off easily. Golden came to town and asked the Sheriff to help him find his house.

Instantaneous Hot Water Day or Night

How to Save Two-Thirds Gas and Have Unlimited Supply of Hot Water.

The boiler in your kitchen stores water, and when you want to heat water in the boiler, you always have to heat more water than you use and have to wait quite a while before the water gets hot. This means an expensive waste of gas, loss of time and much inconvenience, and the water you get is usually lukewarm after all.

Its supply of water is always limited, its water is never hot when most needed, it requires more gas than ought to be necessary, it never supplies water for more than one bath at a time, and it takes an age to heat more water for another bath for somebody else.

With the "Humphrey Instantaneous" Bath-Heater, however, hot water, piping hot, flows from the faucet the moment you light the heater and not before. Closing the faucet shuts off the gas, and your expense stops.

It gives an inexhaustible, always ready, instantaneous, steaming hot supply of water at any time of the day or night, even when all the fires about the house are completely out.

The "Humphrey Instantaneous" gives you the cheapest hot water in the world, and all it heats is the water, not the room, making it perfect for use in the hottest summer weather as well as winter.

Let us send you a beautiful book of illustrations and full explanation of the wonderful Humphrey Instantaneous Bath-Heater; it is free. Send your name and address to-day to The Humphrey Co., Dept. 4, Kalamazoo, Mich.

For those who prefer a larger heater, sufficient for supplying a whole house with hot water instantly, at any minute of the day or night, for the kitchen, laundry, rooms and bathrooms, all at once, we manufacture a still more remarkable device, the Automatic Thermal Water Heater. It is automatic, almost human. We have a separate booklet on these "Automatic" Heaters; ask for this one, too, if you are interested. It is free.

PRESBYTERIAN BROTHERHOOD DECLARES FOR BOND ISSUE

At the First Presbyterian Church last evening, a largely attended meeting of the Men's Brotherhood unanimously adopted a resolution endorsing bonds and annexation. The A. S. Kelly presided over the assembly and introduced H. C. Campbell, who spoke from the business man's standpoint of the almost vital necessity for the improvement of the harbor and the value of annexation to the great port of the city.

November 15 for the issuance of bonds for the improvement of Oakland's water front, and on November 16 for annexation to the city of Oakland of the territory known as Brooklyn Township outside the city limits.

BIG NOON HOUR MEETING HELD IN SOUTHERN PACIFIC YARDS

A big noon-hour meeting was held in the Southern Pacific railroad yards today at which several hundred employees attended and by their frequent applause of telling points scored by the speakers showed they were in sympathetic accord with the two great features of the campaign—bonds and annexation.

He said that it was the best that could be devised to suit the needs of the Oakland harbor.

HENRY HERBERT, WOMAN'S CLUBS PIONEER, IS DEAD ELEGANT OFFICERS

Well Known Alameda County Resident Succumbs After Long Illness

CROSSED THE PLAINS WITH FORTY-NINERS

The Funeral Will Be Held Tomorrow at the Mountain View Cemetery

ALAMEDA, Nov. 12.—Henry Vanderwever Herbert, one of the oldest and widely known residents of Alameda county, formerly high in the service of the Southern Pacific Railroad company and for several years an attaché of the district attorney's office in Oakland, died early this morning in his home at 1433 Morton street. He had been ill for three months, a sufferer from heart disease.

Herbert had been lingering between life and death for several days, and owing to his advanced age, he was 76 years old, but little hope had been expressed for his recovery by his attending physician.

When, at 1:30 o'clock this morning, he breathed his last his family had been prepared for the worst.

Herbert comes from one of the first families of the east. His father, Sidney Herbert, was of a notable Virginia family, while his mother, Margaret Vanderwever, was a member of the famous family of New York. He was born in Brooklyn, in October, 1832.

Following the death of his mother, while he was but of sixteen, Henry Herbert and his father came west. They were a party of the famous "forty-niners" who crossed the plains. They settled in Nevada City where they lived for many years, and then came to San Francisco.

Herbert later became connected with the Central Pacific Railroad. He came to Alameda thirty-three years ago. When the Southern Pacific took over the Central Pacific, Herbert was retained, and rose to the head of the civil department. He was connected with the company for thirty years, and following his retirement affiliated with the district attorney's office in Oakland, six years ago.

FUNERAL TOMORROW. Other than his widow, Mary Elizabeth Herbert, the aged man is survived by seven children—Seymour and Robert Herbert of Oakland; Mrs. Catherine M. Bliss, Mrs. Harriet Neil, Mrs. May Foster, Mrs. Francis Ward and Sidney Herbert.

The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon under the auspices of Oak Grove Lodge, F. & A. M., of which he was an officer. Interment will take place at Mountain View Cemetery.

SUGAR TRUST HEAD IS INDICTED FOR FRAUD

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—James F. Gerdernagel, for many years general superintendent of the Williamsburg plant of the American Sugar Refining company, was today indicted by the Federal grand jury in connection with the alleged sugar weighing frauds.

Gerdernagel's resignation was accepted yesterday.

Six other former employees of the American Sugar Refining Co. were indicted. These men are accused of conspiracy to defraud by underweights in sugar shipments admitted into the country at the Williamsburg docks of the sugar company. They are Oliver, Henry, Thomas, Kellogg, J. M. Voelker, Edward A. Pryor, John R. Coyle and Patrick J. Hennessy, known as the "Big Six."

District Federation at San Jose Chooses Mrs. P. A. Black as President

SAN JOSE, Nov. 12.—The District Federation of Woman's Clubs this morning elected the following officers for the ensuing year:

President, Mrs. P. A. Black of the California Club, San Francisco; vice-president, Mrs. J. Doane of the Woman's Club, San Mateo; recording secretary, Mrs. Clinton Folger of the Outdoor Art League, Mill Valley; corresponding secretary, Mrs. H. Jones of the Woman's Club, San Francisco; treasurer, Mrs. Richmond Wheeler of the Woman's Club, Sausalito; auditor, Mrs. George Reardon of the Woman's Club, Burlingame.

STATE REPRESENTATIVES. Representative of the San Francisco district on the nominating committee at the State convention in Santa Barbara next April, Mrs. H. L. Seger of the Corona Club of San Francisco.

Representative on the credential committee at the State convention, Mrs. V. M. Kennedy of the Woman's Club, San Jose.

A resolution endorsing the juvenile court system was adopted, also a resolution urging that the legal age of girls be raised to 21 years and the age of consent to 18 years.

This afternoon B. R. Zion of San Francisco delivered an address on civil service reform. The convention will adjourn also this evening.

ADDRESS BY MRS. WATSON. Mrs. Elizabeth Watson, the newly-elected state president of the Equal Suffrage Association, at the noon session yesterday of the convention, held the sympathy of her entire audience when she stated that the luxurious men's clubs and the inexpensive bungalows where aggregations of women "keep house" were directly responsible for many of the existing social evils, in that they tend to discourage home life and that they break the home tie.

This arraignment of clubs, "circulars," even of life in society and "fraternity houses," was voiced in Mrs. Watson's address on "Social Purity," which was keenly anticipated for two reasons: first, because it afforded many the first opportunity of hearing Mrs. Watson, who was elected at the recent suffrage convention in Sacramento at a stormy session at which Mrs. William Keith of Berkeley took second place, and also because of the interest which centers about a subject of so wide a scope as "Social Purity."

SEXES SHOULD MINGLE. Mrs. Watson, in her appeal for better social conditions, held her audience for nearly an hour, and in her opening statements delivered the exhortation of men's clubs and their multibillion counterpoints, suggesting instead a substitution that would combine the attractions of both, where men and women might meet together and continue the forward march toward Utopia together. The suggestion was met with enthusiastic approval, the idea being hailed by Mrs. Watson's masculine as well as her feminine hearers.

Contributing along the same line Mrs. Watson dealt in a new and interesting manner with that time-honored subject, that no divorce should be permitted either. Such habits would preclude against the possibility of the boy assuming masculine prerogatives as he grows older, the speaker stated.

Her lecture between the morning and afternoon sessions was occupied with a trip to Alum Rock at which the delegates were guests of the San Jose Board of Trade and were entertained at the clubhouse of the San Jose Club.

STORMY PASSAGE-AT-ARMS.

In the evening there was an interesting passage-at-arms between two factions headed by Mrs. F. H. Colburn and Mrs. E. L. Baldwin, respectively, on the part of the study club from the study club and the civics club. Mrs. Colburn, in her defense of the study club drew an alluring picture of the ideal study club, which would place its members in possession of a variety of information which would enable them to eliminate the criminal element and would tend toward an ideal state of society. Mrs. Colburn, in the evening session was assisted in her defense of a variety of information which would enable them to eliminate the criminal element and would tend toward an ideal state of society.

The result of the spirited debate was in favor of the study club, but honors were evenly split as to the merits of the eloquence of the speakers.

The debate was followed by an address by Dr. William W. Guth, president of the University of the Pacific.

JIM GALLAGHER, BOSS BOODLER, FAILS TO PAY UP

Haled Into Court in an Effort to Effect a Satisfactory Settlement

BILL LONG OVERDUE TO MOTOR COMPANY

"Big Oily Jim" Owes Small Sum of $22.40 for Two Months

"Big Jim" Gallagher, the boss boodler of the boozing board of San Francisco supervisors, most of whose members were caught red-handed with the goods in their possession, but which they were allowed to retain, and cleansed in an immunity bath, in consideration of "peaching" on so-called "higher-ups," for the gratification of a personal revenge, figured in court of justice of the Peace Quinn this morning as a man who refuses to pay his bills.

He had been haled into court by Collector Brennan to compel payment of a claim of $22.40 for nearly two months' storage and repairs to an automobile which had been assigned for collection by the Keystone Motor Company, incorporated, in whose garage and repair shop, at Twenty-second street and Telegraph avenue, the horseless road machine had been stored and repaired pending its sale.

The auto had been taken to the garage by Gallagher himself, according to his own admission on the stand, and subsequently taken away and sold from another garage, without paying for the storage and repair charges to the Keystone Motor Company.

The bill which was due July 25, 1908, had been presented to "Big Jim" at least twenty times without producing any hard coin results. Hence the suit.

HIS CHRONIC CONDITION.
But, according to his further admission, it has become a kind of chronic experience with him to be sued for the non-payment of bills. Certainly, the returned, red-necked, double-chinned, well-to-do, slick-groomed, shifty, suave, glib-tongued and plausibly spoken immunity washed boodler seemed to be well accustomed to the role of defendant in small creditors' suits without suffering any sense of shame, or qualms of conscience, for the latter has been so long seared that nothing can touch it or restore it to a condition of tenderness.

O. B. May and his associates testified to the time "Big Jim's" auto had been in storage and the nature of the repairs which had been done to it, that "Big Jim" had brought the auto to the front of the garage, and being unable to guide it, he had himself had it towed to a broker named Cummings, with whom he claimed to have arranged for its storage and sale; that to make it salable repairs had to be done to the machinery which, through "Big Jim's" inexperience as a driver, had become deranged, and that while the repairs were in progress and, subsequently, when it was in storage, "Big Jim" was an almost daily visitor to the garage.

REPUDIATES RESPONSIBILITY.
But "Big Jim" despite the trouble he amassed during his career as supervisor and Mayor of San Francisco, repudiated his responsibility for the debt incurred for the storage and repair of his machine, on the ground that he had made arrangements with Broer Cummings to take charge of it and take its compensation out of the commission when the auto was sold, and that the Keystone Motor Company must look to Cummings for the payment of the bill. Even in his contention with Cummings, who was not produced as a witness, "Big Jim" held on to his ill-gotten coin and paid the broker with a new tire, which had cost him $31, a partly worn tire and some loose metal tubes in the auto, worth, according to his estimate, all told $50.

TELLS WOEFUL TALE.
The oily defendant dwelt long and eloquent on his woeful experience with the auto. He claimed to pay out one bill of $75 to somebody for repairs, $100 to somebody else for similar work to it, and a few weeks before bringing it to the Keystone garage had paid the Howard Automobile Company $300 for a thorough overhauling. He represented that he had found auto-ownership too expensive and "broke" was his delicate reference to past unpleasant experiences in the auto line. He had been some trouble here which made it desirable to dispose of the auto. And, after all, the net result to him of the sale of the auto was the meagre sum of $50.

PASSES "BUCK" AND BILL.
"Shirley" then conducted his own defense, and made it difficult for Aaron Turner, Collector Brennan's attorney, to pin him solidly down to anything, "passing the buck" as the law says, to the absent Cummings for settlement and repudiating all responsibility for it himself.

Justice Quinn finally took the case under advisement to look up authorities as there were some complications mixed up in the matter through the fact that the Keystone Motor Company is a corporation.

SAN FRANCISCO THUGS WAYLAY A STRANGER

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—Knocked down and beaten by a band of unknown assailants, in a neighborhood unfamiliar to him, Charles A. Nelson of 670 Leavenworth street, complained to the police that he had been robbed of $90 at an early hour this morning. Nelson is a stranger in the city and was unable to furnish the officers the exact locality where the crime was committed.

He said he was suddenly set upon by a gang, knocked to the ground and viciously kicked until he was too dazed to offer resistance.

ROBS CHINESE CAFE DURING BUSY HOUR

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—One of the customers who patronized Goo Sun's restaurant at 611 Jackson street last evening during the rush hour, while the waiters were busy, slipped into a rear room and secured $100 in money and jewelry. The theft was not detected until some time later, and the police have but a slender clue with which to work.

LAWYER IS HANGED FOR MURDER OF COLLEAGUE

SALFORD, Ore., Nov. 12.—James A. Flinch, a lawyer, was hanged here today for the murder of Ralph Fishery, also a lawyer, in Portland, November 28, 1908. Flinch was pronounced dead four minutes after the drop.

PEARL HARBOR TO BE NAVAL BASE

Hawaiian Port to Be Greatest Ship Station in the Pacific.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—The President has approved the recommendation of the joint Army and Navy board for making Pearl Harbor in the Hawaiian Islands the great naval station in the Pacific. In doing this it was considered that a temporary naval station only would be constructed at Olongupo and that the proposed project in the Hawaiian harbor would be a permanent one. This will leave the protection of the Philippines to the army.

DECREASE FORTIFICATIONS

The determination to maintain the fortifications in the Philippines is not to make Pearl Harbor a great naval station was not explained today because of any intention to withdraw American control from the Philippines it was said. It was said purely for reasons of economy. For years a fierce controversy has been waged as to whether the principal fortification in the Philippines should be located at Olongupo or at Manila. Manila has been the favored point and the Manila bay on the Pacific coast could not be lost.

DRY DOCK TO REMAIN

The big floating dry dock of the navy at Olongupo will remain there. It is now estimated to cost between $500,000 and $600,000 and will be removed to the new station at Manila.

THREE ARE SHOT IN GOTHAM GANG FIGHT

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—In a revival of the former gang fights which for years terrorized the East Side during the reign of Monk Eastman and other leaders, most of whom are now in prison, four men were shot up in a saloon in Suffolk street before daylight today and a fusillade of bullets at half a dozen young men in the bar room. One man dropped with a bullet in the back of his head, another received a bullet in his neck and a third was shot through the hand. Before the police could arrive the four assailants were back into the taxi which brought them to the scene and were hurried away. The man who was shot in the head will probably die.

CARRIER PIGEON MAKES A SENSATIONAL FLIGHT

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 12.—An eight hundred mile flight in thirty-one hours and forty minutes was the record made by a carrier pigeon released here Wednesday and which reached Center City yesterday afternoon. The bird belongs to Edward Gartman of Center and it was its first long flight. It was latched on to the wing of a train. The distance from Kansas City to Center City is 811 miles, but by air line is about 100 miles shorter.

Who Plays Your Piano?

In thousands of homes the piano stands untouched, a mute monument to lost opportunities. Every member of the family loves music, but perhaps the only one who could play has left and there's no one who has the skill to release the latent harmonies. Now suppose this. A Cecilian Player Piano occupies that space. Anyone can play at any time any music that suits the fancy or occasion and play it perfectly artistically and soulfully. Everyone sincerely fond of music can become an accomplished player and all the expenditure of time, money and physical strength needed to become a good player is saved.

The Cecilian is the only Player Piano with a metal action (instead of wood) and plays all the eighty-eight notes on the piano. Whether ready to buy or not, we invite you to call to see and hear the Cecilian. We make a fair allowance for your piano, and arrange easy terms of payment if desired.

LOST FORGOT HER HOME IN GLARE OF LIGHTS
WHAT WOMEN ARE DOING

The wife of the mayor of Southport England, a popular seashore resort has opened the first nursery of its kind in the world. It is a series of comfortable canvas tents supplied with cots, trained nurses and all necessities where women visiting the resort may leave their babies to be cared for while they are enjoying their holiday. The babies are fed and tended free of charge.

Mary Condie is the name of the pretty little girl who is the wife of the mayor of Southport England. She is a graduate of Oxford and is a full blooded Irish girl. She has acquired a reputation as a typewriter operator and has the largest private collection of typewriters in the world. She is a devotee of dress and is in contrast to Mrs. Green.

Leslie Melville is a young woman prominent in London society. She has developed remarkable skill as a worker in silver. One of her finest pieces of work was bought at a bazaar by Queen Alexandra. It is a double wreath of silver foliage with the leaves shot with autumn tints. Miss Melville became interested in the art through a visit to a silversmith's shop where silver was turned and wrought in every possible way even to the finest wire. She engaged one of the best silver workers in London and now has become an expert.

It is reported that in passing through her husband's library the attention of the empress of Japan was attracted by a peculiar looking machine. On learning that it was a typewriter and having it explained to her she became interested and began to hit the keys. Now it is said she is a good deal of correspondence for the emperor. It is further reported that Queen Alexandra of England, Queen Mary of Norway, the czarina and the queen of Portugal are all fond of using the typewriter in corresponding with their intimates. It is probable that all of them put together do not use the machine as much as Carmen Sylva, the queen of Rumania, who writes all her poems and stories on a typewriter.

Lady Blount, one of the leaders of London society and president of the Zetetic Society of England, is a woman of ironical at both Perry and Cook. It is her belief that any hunt for the pole is the height of absurdity for she is convinced that the world is flat. Lady Blount is so in earnest that she has been lecturing about it and she intends to go out lecturing in England and Scotland during the winter. The poles 'what are they?' asked Lady Blount the other day of a London audience. To me it is immaterial if Pearly beat Cook or if Cook beat Pearly. The poles are simply magnetic centers in the heavens around which the sun circles in its daily path. It is an absurd supposition that we are living on a ball whirling on an axis and flying through space at an inconceivable speed. The earth is flat.

When We Fall in Love
Love especially in its beginning is a sentiment so subtle and delicate that its expression has always been a difficulty to human nature. So sensitive and tongue-tied in its foolish delicious youth. Perhaps a book, chosen with care, given with significance may first carry the tender message perhaps a flower though now 'slight' while potent with its ugly Latin names is taught in the schools the pretty language once associated with the blossoms of garden and field has ceased to be understood. When the young man wears a peach blossom in his buttonhole the young woman does not know he means to tell her 'I am your captive.' Nor does the modest modestness of a girl while it makes one long to be in love and softens one's heart toward somebody, that somebody is not necessarily the musician and to warble melodious apasion may often increase the chances of a rival. A man stated he first fell in love with the girl who is now his wife while her sister was playing Chopin. Hard lines on the sister one of the many to provide the tune for others dancing and one wonders also if a passion inspired by sweet sounds be of the stuff that endures.

The officers of the Alumni Association are: A. W. Williams, president; C. Johnson, vice president; Miss G. B. Borge, secretary; Miss W. A. Dorman, treasurer.

JUNIOR DANCE
The members of the Home Club last night tendered to their sons and daughters a number of invited guests one of the prettiest dances of the week at the Home Club. The affair was terminated at midnight and about 100 young people participated.

In the receiving party were Mrs. H. C. Caywell, Mrs. Fred Taylor, Mrs. Frank P. Miller, Mrs. R. H. Chamberlain, Mrs. Hugh Webster, Fred Taylor and Frank P. Miller.

Green and pampas plumes yellow and white chrysanthemums and white cosmos were employed in the elaborate decorations of the club house. A supper concluded the evening's gaiety.

DANCE POSTPONED
The senior dance of the Oakland high school which was to have been held tonight has been postponed indefinitely on account of the death of Miss Helen Smith, who with her brother Andrew Smith was a member of the class.

FOR MRS. KNOWLAND
Mrs. Charles Knowland will preside at one of the larger teas of the early season at her home in Alameda to which all her friends several hundred friends to meet Mrs. Joseph R. Knowland, the bride of Congressman Knowland. Mrs. Knowland's tea will be held the afternoon of Friday, November 19th.

ELOPING WIFE FORGIVEN
SAILS WITH TITLED HUSBAND

LADY CROFTON

NEW YORK—Chapter two of an international elopement ended when Lady Crofton and her husband sailed for London on the Kronprinz Wilhelm of the North German Lloyd line with her husband Sir Morgan George Crofton leaving her alleged affinity, James Montague, to kick his heels dismally around New York and dream all alone of the 'dixie' that are gone. Accompanying the reconciled pair was Almeric Montague, older brother of James and who it is said had much to do with bringing Lady Crofton and her husband together again. Constance Collier, an English actress who is reported to have figured also in the reconciliation remains in this city.

The friendship between Lady Crofton and young Montague began a last spring a dispatch from London says when Montague, who is a dashing descendant of an old but untitled family was a guest of the Croftons for the fox hunting season at their Irish country seat. In September Lady Crofton was reported to have disappeared from her town house in Great Cumberland place London.

West leaving in the care of her husband's servants her son Morgan George Crofton, born in April 1907. Crofton, the Dinkertons, who after a long search reported they had found the wife and Montague in the Hotel Gotham. The woman is a tall blonde. She and Montague the detectives said were seen walking together in Fifth avenue and were thence traced to the Gotham. The hotel management saw a telegram from London to Lady Crofton signed Mother which said: 'There is nothing but death left for me. Katherine has exposed everything. Crofton and Almeric Montague came to New York and with the aid of Miss Collier succeeded in reaching Lady Crofton.'

There was next a stormy scene between the pair in the Gotham at the end of which Lady Crofton agreed to return to England with her husband. Montague was left to shift for himself. Crofton and Almeric Montague reached the North German Lloyd pier yesterday. They were close followed by Lady Crofton, deeply veiled. All went aboard and the state room. To a reporter who saw him in his cabin the husband said he and his wife had become reconciled. His wife he said was sailing on the same ship under another name. Lady Crofton denied eloping or living with James Montague in the Gotham. It was only a misunderstanding, she said, 'and my husband is sorry his hiring of the detectives got the publicity it has. Sir Morgan is the sixth baronet of his line of No. 10 Castle County Leitrim, Ireland. He was born in 1879. Lady Crofton is the daughter of Lieutenant Colonel Howard Lloyd Lloyd. She was married to him in 1905.

The Lover
He meets by heavenly chance express
The destined maid some hidden hand
Unlocks to him that loveliness
Whit others cannot understand
His merits in her presence glow
To reach the promise in her eyes
And to her happy footsteps bow
The authentic airs of Paradise
For of her he cannot sleep
Her beauty haunts him all the night
It melts his heart it makes him weep
For wonder worship and delight
O paradox of love he longs
Most humble when he most aspires
To suffer scorn and cruel wrongs
From her he honors and desires
Her graces make him rich and ask
No question this imperial style
Affronts him he dares not look

'Who Am I?
I Don't Know,'
Wailed Bejewelled
Girl to Policeman
at 3 in Morning

NEW YORK—"I was all alone in the lights—and that is so much worse than being all alone in the dark. And I was so very cold."

Miss Lola Drought said that yesterday afternoon as she lay safe at last in the sunniest room of her father's flat at No. 14 West One Hundred and Seventh street.

She is the young woman whom the police found wandering about Columbus Circle early yesterday morning wearing a $700 necklace and a $700 assortment of diamonds and who not only had lost her home but did not know her name.

"I want to go home," she cried. "Who am I? I don't know. Where do I live? Why—why—I don't know where—my home is either."

She was taken to the West Sixty-eighth street police station and various attempts were made to identify her from papers which she carried. But complete identification finally came from the girl's father, William Drought, a contractor, who had called for police assistance to find his missing daughter. He took her to their home the location of which she was not able to remember even though she had recalled his name. She was suffering from amnesia.

Miss Lola's voice was quite steady when she talked with a reporter for The World in the afternoon. "I am pretty nervous," she said. "I never was out so late before—and all alone! But I'll tell you just how it happened."

"Two years ago I studied too hard and broke down. Things began to get mixed up in my mind and I couldn't sleep and when I talked my hands talked too. The doctor said I had nervous prostration and he took me out of school and wouldn't let me read or study."

"Do you know what I used to do? I used to play solitaire all day and at night I wouldn't cause a train-fog," she said and so they let me do it. I think I should have been crazy if it hadn't been for that."

"Sunday evening my sister and myself went to the concert at the Hippodrome. Afterward I was to go to her home in West Sixty-sixth street, and then to my own home."

"But I got separated from her in the crowd coming out of the theater. And then—I just don't know. I walked and walked and I couldn't get home. I was all alone and cold and the lights were like stars in the sky. I was starting at me, laughing at me."

"I remember mounting a great many steps and trying to read all sorts of queer numbers. I don't know what number would be right—but I did know that of all these I saw not one was mine."

"I can't remember seeing a single person or trolley car or automobile or any living thing until that policeman came up and took hold of my arm. Then I could speak to him and ask him to take me home."

"When he took me to the station I saw a telephone book there. And then my name and my telephone address just as it looked in the book flashed into my head. The way a line of poetry would read a long time ago but sometimes come back to you. But I couldn't remember my present home—and I was so glad when my father came for me."

Girl Spurns Her Mother
ST. LOUIS—Mother will be pitted against daughter when Ellen Wassell, 15 years old, whose father Dr. Joseph Wassell was drowned off the yacht Merial in Lake Michigan two months ago appears in the courtroom to resist the efforts of Mrs. Grace 'Ma' Wassell, her mother, to be declared her guardian. The daughter has already filed a petition asking that Miss Agnes L. Hellmuth, her father's housekeeper, be appointed her guardian.

The mother who was divorced from Dr. Wassell because of her refusal to move came to Chicago immediately after the death of her former husband. She was met by the girl's refusal to return with her and news of the guardianship proceedings.

A long battle seems likely to follow the differences of mother and daughter. The daughter maintains that she has become much attached to Miss Hellmuth and prefers remaining with her to going to the New York home of her mother whom she had not seen for several years. The mother asserts that she is the proper person to have charge of her daughter and that her claim as a mother is superior to that of a housekeeper.

SHADOWS HUSBAND, IS HURT BY A CAR
Mrs. Clara Tracy, 24 years old, 1007 Cass avenue, was injured seriously Wednesday night when thrown to the ground while trying to alight from a moving west bound Cass avenue car on Cass avenue near Fourteenth street. According to the police Mrs. Tracy was following the car.

School for Monkeys
The educational world can boast of no rival to Mrs. Hamlyn, the wife of the wild beast importer who has started a school for monkeys. Her skill with her pupils has already been exhibited in her successful training of the renowned Consul and now Mrs. Hamlyn is preparing another debutante in the shape of Diana, who is being taught her manners. She already has made great progress in the art of going civil. Mrs. Hamlyn's pupils as an instructor are undoubted and she has a method of training to which her strange scholars do credit.

Tremendous Majority for Bonds and Annexation Shown by Canvass

EVERY WARD IN CITY IS STRONGLY IN FAVOR OF BOTH CAMPAIGN ISSUES

Commuters Will Be Advised as to Voting and Employees Given Time to Cast Ballots

The canvass now being taken by the workers of the campaign committee shows a tremendous majority of the voters of the city to be for bonds and annexation.

The First, Second, Sixth and Seventh wards are ten to one in favor of the water front bonds and annexation.

The Third, Fourth and Fifth wards do not make so strong a showing, but the reports indicate very little opposition to either of the campaign propositions.

The efforts of the workers are now directed towards securing pledges from the residents of the districts in which they are operating to vote on next Monday and Tuesday.

On the days of the elections every station on the ferry system will be under the surveillance of patrols who will urge upon the commuters the necessity for voting.

The poll lists are being systematized so that those living and working on this side of the bay will not be permitted to neglect their duty in the casting of ballots.

Merchants and industrial managers are being appealed to to aid the cause by seeing to it that their employees vote next Monday and Tuesday.

ROLL CALL OF EMPLOYEES.

During the noon hours on those days every employee will be questioned as to whether he has exercised his electoral privilege. If he has not done so he will be given the time to perform that duty.

The slogan of the campaign is that "bonds and annexation must carry," and by no uncertain vote.

No organized opposition has been manifested against either project.

There is one prevailing sentiment, and that is in favor of the bonds and annexation.

Several circulars have been put out by individuals who exhibited a lack of faith by failing to append their names to the list.

One of these anonymous flyers declares in favor of the opinion of the Supreme Court decision that the water front belongs to Oakland. It cost the city $50,000 in attorney and court fees to find out contrary to what the concealed author of the flyer claims to be the case.

ANONYMOUS FLYERS.

Anonymous remarks are anticipated by the campaign committee and the public is warned not to give credence to any such sort of last-day literature. Every opportunity has been given at club meetings.

ALAMEDA COUNTY PROGRESS CLUB ENDORSES THE ISSUES

At a meeting of the Alameda County Progress Club and Joint Chamber Committee, held last night at 315 San Pablo avenue, short talks were made by T. F. Stansfield, C. C. Craig and Bernard P. Dillie. Both bonds and annexation were endorsed in the following resolutions:

"Whereas, the recent happy turn of events in this city is a portent of the best magnitude for the Oakland of the future, in an assured era of progress and prosperity, in the proper development of her magnificent water front, and with the forecast of a new and up-to-date character is hailed by us as a presage of glory for the common good of all;

"Whereas, those who commit to membership in these two bodies are pleased to discover that their exertions for a better character for Oakland point to practical results;

"Whereas, feeling our indebtedness to the members of the California Jolly and Harbor League, for their untiring and successful exertions in support of water front development, as provided in the plans of Engineer J. T. Thompson, plans so complete and comprehensive in their scope that, when completed, will place Oakland in the category of the world's greatest ports; be it, therefore,

"Resolved, That we heartily and unhesitatingly endorse the issue of bonds for water front and other improvements and for annexation, and pledge ourselves by every legitimate means to work for these great ends."

ASKS REVERSAL OF MARTIN VERDICT

Woman Appeals to Higher Court Against Conviction Obtained in Oakland

FAMOUS BOMB THROWING CASE AGAIN IN COURT

That Judge Erred in Admitting Testimony Is the Allegation Made

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—The full bench of the District Court of Appeals was occupied yesterday in the hearing of arguments on a criminal appeal from Alameda county in the case of the State vs. Isabella Martin, convicted in Oakland in 1907 of having dynamited the house of Judge Frank H. Ogden and sentenced therefor to San Quentin for life.

The appeal is based upon alleged errors of the trial judge in having allowed the introduction of certain testimony at the trial relative to Mrs. Martin's influence over a young man named John B. Martin, now frequently referred to as "Baby John."

REVERSAL. Evidence was allowed at the trial tending to show that Mrs. Martin had exercised a kind of hypnotic influence over "Baby John," a youth at that time about 16 years old, and that while in this semi-hypnotic condition he had suggested to Mrs. Martin, which resulted in her arrest, trial and conviction. The claim is made in the brief of appellants, filed by her attorneys, A. L. Fryck and Burton Jackson, that the testimony of the young man, who was frequently referred to as "Baby John," was inadmissible.

During the progress of the argument a dialogue ensued between members of the court and Attorney J. Charles Jones, representing the Attorney General's office as counsel for the respondent, in which it was inferentially indicated that the court in a measure agreed with the contention of appellants, the court even going so far as to say that the trial of the case in the lower court might have been conducted upon more proper lines by both the trial judge and the prosecuting officers.

INFERRED FROM DIALOGUE. During the progress of the argument a dialogue ensued between members of the court and Attorney J. Charles Jones, representing the Attorney General's office as counsel for the respondent, in which it was inferentially indicated that the court in a measure agreed with the contention of appellants, the court even going so far as to say that the trial of the case in the lower court might have been conducted upon more proper lines by both the trial judge and the prosecuting officers.

The present aspect of the case derives its importance from the fact that the court in a measure agreed with the contention of appellants, the court even going so far as to say that the trial of the case in the lower court might have been conducted upon more proper lines by both the trial judge and the prosecuting officers.

BROOKLYN TOWNSHIP ANTIS DISBANDED AND WITHDRAW

Will Now Put Up Battle in Interests of Annexation, Hoping to Win for the Good Cause

The Brooklyn Township Anti-Annexation Club was formally dissolved at the meeting held last night at Souza's hall, Melrose, and with the exception of a few of the "insurgents" no members devoted to join the Brooklyn Annexation Club.

The report of the committee of ten recited the history of the movement, which resulted in the signing of the agreement covering all points of difference and ending the opposition.

The report reads as follows: "For several weeks prior to 7 o'clock last evening there has existed in this territory a very thorough and complete organization which was known as the Brooklyn Township Anti-Annexation Club. This club was composed of representatives from the various districts within the township, and its object was to oppose the annexation of the township to the city of Oakland.

"The committee of ten appointed by the anti-annexation club was instructed by that organization that they should stand firm and not yield upon the first three (3) propositions, and that in no event should any one of these three pledges be eliminated. They were further instructed by the organization that they might use their discretion with reference to the remaining eight (8), but to secure them if possible, and that if the propositions were agreed to by the committee of ten from Oakland and duly formulated and signed by the Mayor, City Attorney and City Engineer, and the officers and directors of the Chamber of Commerce and the Merchants' Exchange, and the Chamber of Commerce, that the committee be instructed and authorized to withdraw the opposition of the anti-annexation club and to unequivocally pledge the support of that club to annexation.

"The committee of ten so appointed by the anti-annexation club in its meeting above referred to were as follows: Frank J. Gordon (chairman), J. A. Leonard, George Ingraham, Ben Wilson, W. F. Broderick, B. A. Gamble, J. P. Hood, F. W. S. Brooks, Elbert Howard, E. A. Freeman, Messrs. Ben Wilson and E. A. Freeman being alternate committee members to serve in case of vacancy in the committee.

"This committee of ten met a like number from the Oakland organizations at the Key Route Inn at 12 o'clock on Friday, November 5th, and the deliberations of the two committees lasted from that hour until the hour of 11 o'clock, at which time the propositions above set forth were duly formulated and signed. After the committee of ten saw the signature of the last person fixed to the document the chairman of that committee made the statement that all opposition to annexation by that club ceased and that thereafter and until the day of election that club would use its best efforts for the successful consummation of the annexation, given to the committee by the organization from which it was appointed.

OPPOSITION GONE. "A special meeting of the anti-annexation club of Brooklyn Township was held by Frank J. Gordon, its president, last night, November 11th, and resolutions were passed by that organization in that meeting ratifying the acts of its committee of ten and pledging its unequivocal support to annexation, thereby eliminating all opposition to the annexation of the township to the city of Oakland. The report was certified to by Frank J. Gordon, president, and A. A. Leonard, secretary.

CHORUS. "The anti-annexation club of Brooklyn Township is hereby dissolved, and its members are hereby instructed to join the Brooklyn Annexation Club, and to use their best efforts for the successful consummation of the annexation of the township to the city of Oakland."

DEMANDS ARE MET. "The two committees met at the Key Route Inn on the evening of the 5th, arranged for, and stated their demands very openly and frankly, and the anti-annexation committee received assurances from the committee of the other side that such and every demand would be accepted to, and that a written document would be prepared, if necessary, which document would be signed by the Mayor, the City Attorney and the City Engineer, together with the officers and directors of the Chamber of Commerce and the Merchants' Exchange. The committee of twenty-five from the anti-annexation club did not and would not serve to withdraw opposition until they reported back to the central organization the powers of their deliberations, and per instructions on the evening of Thursday, November 4th, explaining to that organization the result of their deliberations, and that every demand made by that organization had been accepted.

ENTHUSIASTIC RALLY IS HELD IN MELROSE DISTRICT

Great Gathering at Blackman's Hall Is Strongly in Favor of Annexation to Oakland

One of the most enthusiastic and largely attended rallies for annexation in the outside district was held last evening at Blackman's hall, on East Fourteenth street and the California Railway.

William B. Dibby, state organizer for the Brotherhood of Carpenters, presided, and took occasion in his introductory remarks to urge union with Oakland.

Mayor Mott addressed the meeting on what Oakland had to offer in the way of municipal advantages and he furthermore declared that the great city park which Oakland was determined to possess itself of in the next two or three years, would be within the boundaries of the territory now being voted for annexation. He spoke of the advantages that the extension of the projected belt line would have in making the lower part of the district an ideal situation for industrial sites.

L. E. Gray spoke of the fact of having resided in the district and urged upon his auditors the need for securing those advantages which only a great city can provide.

R. M. Hamb, business agent of the Building Trades Council, urged annexation in the strongest terms.

J. T. Flynn spoke of the projected wharf and dock system which he declared would have a beneficial effect upon the outside district as to Oakland itself.

The Highland school glee club rendered the following campaign song, the latest of Professor Seaman's lyrical contributions to the cause which is set to the tune of "Bonnie Dundee":

Oh! where is Oakland?
She lies on the Bay
Down here below,
She's the city of promise,
In front of the future.
The grandest location
In all the great State.
Then Rally! Rally! Rally!
While the wagon goes your way.
And annexation is the tune,
The band is sure to play.

Shall we go into Oakland?
Then, right front, about face,
Fall into line at once
Keep up the pace.
Oh! Rally! Rally! Rally!
To make up a team
In baseball play.

CHORUS:
Shall we go into Oakland?
Sure we will.
We'll go with a rush

That will send a chill
Up the backs of the Antis
And into their feet.
Now they're scared, then twenties
On poverty street.

CHORUS:
We will go into Oakland,
We'll watch us, to vote.
We'll be here to stay,
If we're riding a boat.
Then fall into line
On the great bay.
You can push along progress,
On election day.

CHORUS:
The Fitchburg Improvement Association has by resolution come out strongly for annexation and urges upon the people of that section the necessity for voting for the proposition on Tuesday next. The association is composed of some of the most prominent men in Fitchburg. J. M. Chandler is president and Stanley Murray, secretary. J. F. Knight, one of the leading members of the progressive organization, said: "We will give a big majority for annexation in the Fitchburg district."

HARBOR IMPROVEMENTS SOUND BUSINESS SENSE

M. J. Keller Gives Interesting View of the Bond Question—Other Prominent Men Speak

"This bond issue is the part of good business sense," said M. J. Keller in an interview today with a TRIBUNE representative. "We willingly pay taxes for actual running expenses of the city government which is merely for maintenance. Why there should be any question about paying a little more tax and making permanent improvements which will almost pay for their construction in wharves and warehouse tolls does not appeal to sound sense. The greatest pull in any man's business career is to get beyond working for the landlord, his clerks and running expenses. When he gets beyond that point and accumulates a little capital to put into stock is when he is on the highway to success and stands before the world on a solid basis."

"It is with a city as with the individual. Taxes invested in parks, city halls, schools, fire engine houses and other such permanent improvements is capital."

"The harbor bonds are the highest form of a capital investment."

IMPROVEMENTS THAT PAY. "The improvements which they provide for will pay a handsome revenue and in time will pay for themselves and return a surplus to the city."

"No man versed in the principles that lead to success in business can controvert the arguments urged in favor of the harbor improvement bonds."

"The man who gradually acquires a little home is more advantageously placed in life than the man who does not acquire anything, and the city that remains content with just providing itself with revenue sufficient for maintenance never makes advance."

"We have in the harbor improvement an investment that no man who possesses sound business sense can afford not to vote for."

PUBLIC SENTIMENT. DR. GEORGE P. TOLMAN of 310 Myrtle street says:

"There can be no objection to bonds for water front improvement and it is surely a matter that appeals to the good sense of every one to enlarge our municipal boundaries and add nearly 70,000 souls to our population. We should not only advocate both projects, but show our good faith in our own opinions by voting for them."

LYMAN A. JACOBUS, 613 Telegraph avenue, says: "No one who takes a pride in Oakland or who has a drop of good blood in his veins can other than vote for bonds and annexation. By all means let us stand with the other cities on the American continent that are pressing on to the highest achievements."

J. V. OLIVA, 361 Myrtle street, says: "Am I for bonds and annexation? I certainly am, and so should every other citizen of Oakland who has any regard for his neighbor and takes a pride in the community."

IS THERE OPPOSITION? D. P. HUGHES, professor of music, 1020 Myrtle street, says: "It is possible that there are any who are opposed to bonds and annexation? I cannot credit that as

BURGLAR CAPTURED BY WOMEN HELD FOR TRIAL

Charles J. Johnson, charged with forcing an entrance to the apartments of C. F. Merrill in the Hotel Windsor, corner of Ninth and Washington streets, was held to answer for trial before Superior Court this morning by Police Officer Smith. His bail was placed at $2,000.

The capture of Johnson was spectacular in the extreme. As he was coming from the room of Merrill he encountered Mrs. Alice Palmer, a roomer, and Miss Daisy Wagner, a roomer. The two women gave battle to the burglar and followed him to the street in their nightclothes. The attention of a policeman was attracted and he followed Johnson in the chase and arrested Johnson. The prisoner confessed his guilt.

BOAT HOUSES TO BE TORN DOWN

Commissioners Order
Structures on Lake Merritt Taken Away

At a meeting of the park commissioners yesterday afternoon it was decided on the motion of Commissioner Edoff that persons now occupying the Twelfth street side of Lake Merritt with boathouses would have to take the structures down by December 1. The work of improving the Twelfth street dam will go forward and if the boathouses are not removed they will be covered up. Lovers of boating in Oakland will not, however, be left without means of enjoying themselves.

A temporary boathouse will be erected near the new city museum. The privilege of erecting a temporary structure will be awarded to the person or firm making the highest bid. Plans for a permanent boathouse under way, but it will be six months at least before steps can be taken looking toward the erection of such a structure.

CUT THROUGH CEILING, THEN CRACK OPEN SAFE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—A pair of daring burglars, who for some time have been their eyes on the safe of Joseph Stern, proprietor of the Curio Shop at Golden Gate avenue, accomplished their purpose of robbing the place last night after laying careful plans. They hired a room in a lodging house upstairs, directly above the store, and cutting a hole in the ceiling, let themselves down from the inside.

After effecting an entrance to the safe, they discovered that it did not contain the valuables which they had expected to find, and contented themselves with carrying off goods to the value of $198.50.

PAINTER FALLS TO GROUND

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—Maurice Bauman, a painter of 1143 Develadero street, fell from a scaffold at the building at Fulton and Develadero streets at 6 o'clock this morning and received serious injuries. The scaffolding gave way beneath him and he was plunged to the pavement.

He was taken to the hospital, where he is now lying, and a possible fracture of the skull.

PRIZE WINNING EXPOSITION PIANOS ALSO ON DISPLAY

AND TO BE SOLD AT GREAT REDUCTIONS---$10 OR $8. YES, EVEN AS LITTLE AS $6 A MONTH SE-CURES A MAGNIFICENT NEW PIANO
AT SALE PRICE

STORE AT 557-559 TWELFTH ST., OPPOSITE ORPHEUM
THEATER, OPEN EVENINGS DURING SALE.

Last Monday we inaugurated our demonstration sale of new high-grade pianos. In this we undertake to show what our tremendous organization is able to accomplish for the piano buyer. Scores of visitors to our establishment have not only been satisfied with our prices and terms, but have really been amazed at the great savings that we now offer on high-grade pianos. We believe that the best thing for the piano manufacturing and selling industry is to bring the price of a good piano within the reach of every home. The old-time policy of charging enormous profits and thereby restricting the sale of pianos to the few is all wrong.

AN ILLUSTRATION OF THE SATISFIED CUSTOMER.
Yesterday a lady called at our store who stated that for years she had wanted a piano and had never felt that she was in a position to own one. She had noticed by the papers that we were holding a special sale and she stated that she did not come to our store to buy, but really came to investigate our plans and to see if she was able to own one. Before leaving our store she was the possessor of a beautiful high-grade Kimball piano, one of the pianos that took the highest award at the A. Y. P. exposition, Seattle, and also the highest award at the World's Fair, Chicago, 1893, and she actually saved $156 by buying the piano of us at this time and besides this saving she pays for the piano on payments of $10 a month. We could repeat dozens of similar experiences of those who called on us yesterday. We believe that there is no better advertisement for any house than a satisfied customer. The best testimonial for a piano is the sincere recommendation of those using them, and it is with pride that we refer to the thousands of satisfied customers to whom we have sold high-grade pianos.

We expect and request every intending buyer to first visit our store before coming to us, and then they will be in a position to make a fair comparison of the prices that we are making. Whether it be the cheapest instrument that is dependable or the most costly of fancy uprights or artistic grands or an Autopiano come to us first or come to us last, it is all the same. We are sure that you will find our store the place that you should pay for the piano on payments of $10 a month. Our most enthusiastic friends are those buyers who have made careful comparisons, and as we have repeatedly announced, if we cannot show that we sell pianos for grade and quality for quality for less, and much less, than does any other piano house in California, we have no right to ask for business; we have no right to have our established large business that we have.

WHY AND HOW WE CAN DO IT.
The reasons why we can and do give you the greatest piano values are numerous.

To begin with, we represent the best, the foremost, the biggest American piano makers. We contract for an annual supply for forty stores in the United States and we handle the largest orders for a carload now and a carload then. It is only reasonable that under our system we should be able to purchase our pianos at much lower prices than others. In handling of this tremendous number of pianos the saving of much money is made possible. These items become comparative.

trifles under our management. These and other advantages we share with you when you buy your pianos of us. If the forty stores conducted by us under practically the same management were separate and independent establishments, it would require forty sets of officers to do the work. The extra thirty-nine sets of executives would have to be maintained by the buying public. Here is another important saving. The advantage of it goes to you when you buy your piano.

Selling an enormous number of pianos enables us to add but a very small profit to each instrument and yet secure very satisfactory results upon our investment. Placing such low selling prices on dependable pianos enables us to much more readily sell a great many pianos than others sell few. Our business involves, in short, the correct application of the best merchandising principles to the piano trade.

OUR EASY PAYMENT PLAN.
Aside from being organized to sell at low prices, we are also equipped with the mere simple additional interest, to sell any instrument desired upon terms of payment as may best suit the convenience of the buyer. We sell numerous pianos for as little as $3 and $6 a month. Three years' time given to complete the purchase of any piano. No home worthy the name of home should be without the refining influence of music.

OUR GUARANTEE TO SATISFY.
Every piano sold by the Eilers establishment is a carefully selected instrument and it is accompanied by an unconditional guarantee. This guarantee means that every instrument after delivery must be found by the purchaser exactly as represented and in every way satisfactory or money refunded. It is a guarantee that guarantees.

TONG WARFARE NOW IN COURT

Alleged Conspirators in Murder of the Yees Held Under Heavy Bond

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—Police Judge Shortall held the bonds today for Tong King Chong, secretary of the Chinese Free Masons and editor of the Chinese Daily Free Press, and Goo Hong On, president of the On Yick Tong, at $25,000 each. The man, who has been charged with conspiracy to murder Yee Fong Hong, one of the Yee Tong killed November 2, are still at large, but it is believed they will surrender as soon as bonds are secured for their appearance.

The Vin was arraigned today on the charge of having murdered Ow Ying Gum, the On Yick who was shot Wednesday night. The case went over until next Wednesday.

CAKLAND SITUATION UNCHANGED.
Captain of Detectives Petersen this morning stated that there was nothing new in the war between the On Yick and the Yee family, as far as Oakland is concerned. The vendetta is still on, however, and it is probable that there will be more shooting before a truce is declared.

In this city there are a number of factions that are working energetically for peace, advising the warring factions to cease their hostilities. Whether the pressure brought to bear on the On Yicks and the Yee family will bear fruit remains to be seen. The police are redoubling their efforts and an attempt to land the gunmen in jail will be made.

RESOLUTIONS PASSED.
The following resolutions were passed this morning:

"Whereas, The Christian Sabbath is one of the fundamental principles of the Christian religion and its preservation is essential to the progress of the church and the prosperity of Christ's kingdom; and

"Whereas, The desecration of the Lord's day is increasing throughout the State and a persistent effort is being made by the international bureau to secure a Sunday rest law and thus protect our citizens in their natural and divine right to a weekly rest day in which they may meet in the house of worship; therefore,

"Resolved, That we recommend to the pastors and churches that they heartily co-operate with the reform bureau as an agency of the federated churches of the State for the enactment of a Sunday law and the suppression of the social vices;

"Resolved, That we assert our deep interest in all movements for social betterment, our gratitude for the progress of the temperance cause, particularly through the labors of the anti-saloon league for the crushing out the race track gambling; for the abolition of the slot machines in our cities; for the awakening of the public conscience with regard to the white slave traffic. We demand the future legislatures of the State granting to the people the right of self-government by passing a local option law which enables the people to determine directly whether or not they shall vote to perpetuate that stern center of the social forces of the saloon;

"Resolved, That we declare our conviction of the strategic importance of our educational enterprise and the duty of loyalty to the budget appropriation for Christian education that we rejoice in the steady progress of the Pacific Coast Baptist Theological Seminary under the presidency of Dr. C. M. Hill and hope for the erection in the near future of Memorial Hall as a home for its activities; that we express our appreciation of the unselfish and efficient labors of Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Brinistad in behalf of California College, and the success achieved despite difficulties and that we loyally co-operate with the convention in respect to its plans for the future of the college."

BAPTISTS SPEAK IN RESOLUTIONS

Declare for Social Reforms, Temperance and Universal Christian Education

The report of committees and the election of officers took up the morning of the third day of the Baptist conference in this city. The committee on enrollment stated that 385 delegates were in attendance. The committee on place and preacher has decided on Twin Lakes, near Santa Cruz, as the next meeting place of the convention and the Rev. R. N. Lynch of Patuxent will deliver the annual sermon.

In the address of the Rev. A. C. Banc last night on the anti-saloon question he predicted that if the people were allowed to vote on the question of the saloon license it would be prohibition in five years. At present the matter of license rests with the supervisors.

"DO THE PEOPLE RULE?"
Professor Thomas H. Reed's talk dealt with the question of democracy or the question, "Do the people rule?" Professor Reed stated that in cities there is not so much political interest, but through the people and that the power in the hands of the predatory interest, who succeed in dividing the votes of the good people and center their strength upon their favorite candidate. He concluded by remarking that what is needed is not so much political education as moral impulse. The election of officers is as follows:

RESOLUTIONS PASSED.
The following resolutions were passed this morning:

"Whereas, The Christian Sabbath is one of the fundamental principles of the Christian religion and its preservation is essential to the progress of the church and the prosperity of Christ's kingdom; and

"Whereas, The desecration of the Lord's day is increasing throughout the State and a persistent effort is being made by the international bureau to secure a Sunday rest law and thus protect our citizens in their natural and divine right to a weekly rest day in which they may meet in the house of worship; therefore,

"Resolved, That we recommend to the pastors and churches that they heartily co-operate with the reform bureau as an agency of the federated churches of the State for the enactment of a Sunday law and the suppression of the social vices;

"Resolved, That we assert our deep interest in all movements for social betterment, our gratitude for the progress of the temperance cause, particularly through the labors of the anti-saloon league for the crushing out the race track gambling; for the abolition of the slot machines in our cities; for the awakening of the public conscience with regard to the white slave traffic. We demand the future legislatures of the State granting to the people the right of self-government by passing a local option law which enables the people to determine directly whether or not they shall vote to perpetuate that stern center of the social forces of the saloon;

"Resolved, That we declare our conviction of the strategic importance of our educational enterprise and the duty of loyalty to the budget appropriation for Christian education that we rejoice in the steady progress of the Pacific Coast Baptist Theological Seminary under the presidency of Dr. C. M. Hill and hope for the erection in the near future of Memorial Hall as a home for its activities; that we express our appreciation of the unselfish and efficient labors of Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Brinistad in behalf of California College, and the success achieved despite difficulties and that we loyally co-operate with the convention in respect to its plans for the future of the college."

PHIPPS EXTORTER HAD ACCOMPLICE

Such Is Belief of Prosecution in the Famous Denver Dynamite Plot

DENVER, Nov. 12.—The possibility that Mrs. Read had an accomplice in her alleged attempt at extortion from Mrs. Phipps was brought out today when John R. McDonald, special police attorney for the building of the International Trust Company, testified that he saw a strange man walking slowly back and forth in front of the building and watching the automobile in which Mrs. Read and Mrs. Phipps had driven up.

The dynamite which Mrs. Read had in her hand when she was seized will not be presented to the jury for examination.

"I am told," said the judge, "that there is only one chance in a thousand of the dynamite exploding. That court does not care to take that chance in this crowded courtroom."

Mrs. Phipps' two children were on the stand during the afternoon.

MRS. MARCEL MISTREATED WITNESSES TESTIFY

At the hearing of the Morcel will contest today, Miss Louise Delaurie testified that Mrs. Morcel had told her many times that she and her husband had loved each other very much and that her daughter, Mrs. Morcel, had mistreated her, causing her much sorrow, and that she had decided not to give her anything in her will.

Mrs. Morcel had stated to the witness that on one occasion the daughter had taken her by the wrists and put her out of the house in a driving rain storm, saying as she did so:

"I curse you and do not want to see you again."

John Delaurie, the father of Louise, gave similar testimony.

QUINN CLUB WILL DISCUSS BOND ISSUE

The James G. Quinn Republican Club will hold its regular meeting tonight in Stachler's Hall, on Adeline street. Bonds and annexation will be the subjects discussed by the leading officials of this city.

Judge James G. Quinn will preside over the meeting which will be addressed by Mayor Mott, John W. Stetson, Albert Elliot, Oliver Ellsworth and Eugene Stachler.

LOOK WHAT LEHNHARDT DOING, HE HAS SMASHED ANOTHER RECORD

Candy Man Sets Aside All Precedents and Repeats, Next Sunday, the Wonderful Dessert That Created Such a Sensation Last Sunday—It Was Suggested by a Berkeley Society Woman and Is Said to Be One of the Most Delicious Frozen Desserts Ever Made.

That man Lehnhardt is original if nothing else. For a year and a half he has been making frozen desserts each Sunday and every Sunday he offered something different. Recently he has been asking for suggestions and as a result is in receipt of scores of splendid ideas, many of which will be carried out as opportunities present themselves.

Last Sunday he made up a brick that was suggested by a Berkeley woman, and it made such a tremendous success that he has decided to set aside all precedent and repeat it again next Sunday.

"I never before used the same dessert for two consecutive Sundays," said Mr. Lehnhardt to a representative of THE TRIBUNE this morning.

"And it took a lot of persuasive argument to get me to do it this time. I have at least twenty-five fine desserts up my sleeve," and he laughed as he shook his arm, "and am anxious to try them all; but so many of my friends missed getting last Sunday's brick, and those who did get it were so very insistent that I should repeat it that I finally gave in. As a matter of principle I like to change the nature of the dessert every Sunday, but what are you going to do when a big bunch of your best customers almost beg you to repeat? I run my store to please my patrons, and as it seems to be their pleasure that I should offer last Sunday's brick again, I'll have to do it."

It is said that Lehnhardt does the biggest business in Sunday desserts of any individual in the U. S. His success is attributed to the extreme personal care he gives to the making of each dessert. He never allows a Sunday special to be made for general sale until a sample brick has been shown him and thoroughly tested. He buys the best of fresh fruits and uses the best of heavy pastry cream. Recently he made a special that he considered the use of a great many eggs. At that time the best eggs cost more than 5c apiece. He paid this price without hesitation, although he could have used storage eggs, costing only about half as much. As he says, the public is willing to pay for the best, and is consequently satisfied to the best. He applies this principle throughout his entire business and sees to it personally that his employees follow out his ideas in this respect.

"I might just as well resign in advance if I tried to economize in such by using inferior ingredients," said an employee in his candy factory recently. "Mr. Lehnhardt simply will not stand for poor materials, and we all understand it. He is a crank on quality, and if any one doubts it let him try to use some poor material; it would cost him his job so quickly that it would make his head swim."

The dessert that is to be repeated next Sunday will be advertised tomorrow night. It consists of a layer of walnut ice cream and a layer of strawberry ice cream, and the fact that it is to be made again proves that it must be exceedingly fine. Mr. Lehnhardt only charges 50c for a cake brick, providing the customer calls for same, and only 80c if it is packed in ice and delivered. His telephone numbers are Oakland 497 and Home Phone A-2497. His candy store, on Broadway between Thirteenth and Fourteenth, is one of the finest on the Pacific Coast.

WORK HORSES HAVE DAY AT GOTHAM HORSE SHOW

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—At Madison Square Garden today the National Horse Show judges passed upon the quality of blooded Percherons, Belgians and plain draft horses, as well as upon a sprightly class of polo pony breeding stock. The success of the English officers yesterday intensified interest in the further trials of hunters, in which the foreign horses were entered.

BRANDENBURG PUT ON TRIAL FOR KIDNAPING

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 12.—The taking of testimony in the trial of Broughton Brandenburg, the magazine writer, who is charged with the abduction of his stepson, was begun here today. A jury was obtained last yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Cabanne-Brandenburg, mother of the boy, who was found with Brandenburg when he was arrested in San Francisco, is to testify for her husband.

Good Reasons Why

A CUSTOMER asked one of our fitters the other day how it was that we could show all the new models before other houses, and this is our reply: There is never a month in the year we don't get the latest Persian models, not only the corsets, but the patterns of every model sent. If they look good to our staff of fitters we have them produced by the WARNER BROS. CO., the largest manufacturers of corsets in the world. Some people say they don't like the WARNER CORSET. All we can say is that we have never had the pleasure of fitting you to one. WARNER'S

CORSETS are made from all the latest Persian models, same styles as made by all the best Persian makers, only that they produce them at less than one-half the price of the imported models. Every pair is guaranteed to wear; not to break or tear. That is why we recommend them.

WE are showing in cut today our Style 173. This model is known as the scoop front model and is a reproduction of a fifteen dollar model in the Persian make and one of our biggest sellers. It is made of white coutil and boned with rust-proof boning; has a medium high bust and extreme long skirt; 20 1/2-inch back. Three pairs of heavy hose supporters attached. Sizes 18 to 28. Price $2.00 the pair.

BOY SUSPECT HAS BURGLAR OUTFIT

Dime Novels Said to Be Cause of 17-Year-Old Youth's Downfall

While Prentz, a 17-year-old boy, employed by the Darling drug store at the corner of Seventh and Adeline streets, was taken into custody yesterday by the police on a charge of burglary. He is alleged to have entered a grocery store at 754 Center street and to have stolen a quantity of goods, a portion of which was recovered.

When arrested the boy had on him a complete burglar outfit, including two revolvers.

Dime novels, the mother of the boy declares, turned his mind. The boy will be charged with burglary, but will probably be turned over to the probation officer.

STANFORD FRESHMAN DROPS FROM SIGHT

BURY DIFFERENCES FOR BENEFIT OF ALL OAKLAND

Ringling Appeals Made by J. P. Montgomery and Others for Unity in Voting for Bond Issue

"Let us all rise above our petty differences and bury our personal and political dissensions in the cause of a greater Oakland, and all unite in one sentiment for harbor improvements and annexation," was the ringing appeal made by J. P. Montgomery in the course of his address before the big meeting at L. D. S. Hall, 237 Hottle street, last night, to vote for bonds.

The sentiment was applauded to the echo. "Nothing stands between us and the breaking down of our harbor barriers but the petty personal and political dissensions," declared the speaker. "No sound argument has been advanced as reason for not carrying out the plans of the engineering commission and which depend solely upon your answer through the ballot box to the bond issue at next Monday's election."

DUTY TO VOTE. He urged upon his auditors to vote. It was a duty, he argued, that was incumbent upon every citizen and was a privilege that in its exercise was the highest function of civilized man.

"Vote intelligently," urged the speaker, "and you will cast your ballot for bonds. Let us step out into the highway of advance and by our own actions show that we deserve the conditions by which we are surrounded."

"Let me urge again upon you to exercise your electoral privilege on next Monday and Tuesday with due consideration for the greater glory of the community and for the benefits of that will result to others if you do not care to share them. Let us exhibit our pride in our home city and show by our votes that we realize our position and appreciate our community. The willingness of a people to forego petty animosities and points of personal and political difference is the attribute of a great people and we surely can afford to make such sacrifices to rise to such a standard."

SUPPORTS MAYOR. Thomas T. Marshall of the State Harbor and River League applauded the sentiments expressed by J. P. Montgomery. I cannot be charged with being a political follower of Mayor Mott. In fact I opposed him in the high ground that he did not advocate those policies which in my judgment I thought were best to pursue in developing our great resource of harbor. That he has risen to the occasion and has shaped his policy to advance along the lines for which our organization stands for he has no warmer advocate than myself and he has the undivided support of the State Harbor and River League.

The plans that are projected for the development of the harbor, if you vote for the bond on next Monday, are the result of scientific and specialized study of our needs by the league and they form the basis for one of the most perfect systems that can be devised for harbor improvement. It meets every requirement of the conditions peculiar to our situation and permits of extension as the demand requires increased facilities.

URGES VOTING. Judge J. P. Quinn delivered an enthusiastic address urging his auditors to vote for bonds. Councilmen Stuchler and Ellsworth spoke upon the various phases of the bond issue. Herby urged upon taking advantage of present opportunity against the day when private citizens would enter upon the scene and acquire by condemnation for their own use that which in our negligence we would permit who follow if the bond issue did not carry.

C. M. Wardell of the Building Trades Council made particular appeal to the working element. He declared that "the willingness of a city to build itself for permanent improvement is one of the greatest assets in civic progress."

R. J. Montgomery spoke on the urgency of present action and that the harbor improvements could not be delayed. F. J. McDonald presided over the meeting which was one of the largest held during the present campaign.

SEEKING CONTROL OF PEOPLES WATER CO. URGES BOND ISSUE TO CLUB MEMBERS

Offer Alleged to Have Been for Havens Syndicate to Complete Big Merger

According to the latest reports received from New York it is believed that the efforts of Will Tavis to form a merger of all the water companies supplying San Francisco and the bay cities depends now entirely on the price that the Tavis and the Havens syndicate are willing to pay for the control of the Peoples Water Company of this city.

It is also reported that R. G. Hanford, who is in the project as one of the promoters, has an option on the shares of the Peoples Water Company that are held by the Havens Syndicate and that Frank C. Havens has gone East to be present at any consummation of the sale which may be made.

EASY TO CONTROL. "Tavis knows that he can get control of the Spring Valley water company, he wants to go out on the street after it," said a San Francisco banker yesterday. "Getting control of the Peoples Company, however, is a different matter, for one syndicate has the control of it. That is the reason Tavis went after the Oakland company first. But there is no one man who controls the Spring Valley, nor does any syndicate. President Loun, who owns a fraction of the stock, seems to have been outgassed in this deal. He may wake up any morning to find that Tavis has the entire control of his company."

DENIED BY LEACH. "Of course all this may be possible," said President Frank Leach of the Peoples Water Company, "but I know nothing about it. I can say, however, that the rumored price of $5 a share said to have been offered for the stock is wrong. The common stock, what there is to be had, it sells for $5.25, and as for the preferred stock, the last that was for the want for $5, and I don't know where there is a share to be had even at that price."

"As for Mr. Havens' visit East, that is for the purpose of bringing his family home, and has no connection, so far as I know, with the business of the Peoples Water Company. Besides if it had been said that his visit West it would look more like the truth."

William Havens, son of Frank Havens, said last evening that there had been a meeting of the directors of the Peoples Water Company, but that no business relative to any transfer of the company's stock nor consolidation project had been discussed.

"Of course I have heard all kinds of rumors about contemplated changes," said Havens, "and I will not affirm or deny them. I simply say that I know nothing about them. I have heard them stated from outside sources. I will not deny any possibility of such a thing because it might come up any day, but at present I know nothing about it, and I would like to know if anything of the kind were in contemplation. As for large sales, I can assure that no one has attempted to buy any of mine. My father's trip East had nothing to do with business. It was solely a pleasure trip."

OSAKA SHOESHEN KAISHA HAS ADVERTED RATE WAR TACOMA, Nov. 12.—R. Kafuku, traffic manager of the Osaka Shoshen Kaisha, announced today that beginning November 25 the division of steamship and railroad rates on east bound cargo would be the same as those of the other conference lines.

While this will not change the rates as far as the shippers are concerned it will place the Osaka Shoshen Kaisha on the same basis as the other lines, and has, it is asserted, avoided a rate war.

PLAN RECEPTION FOR WOMEN'S AUXILIARY BRENKLEY, Nov. 12.—A reception will be given next Tuesday afternoon to the women who helped to raise the Y. M. C. A. building fund. A dinner to be given early in December is under consideration. A supper will be given every week to the members of the gymnasium class that remain for the Monday evening Bible class.

DISCUSS DISTRIBUTION OF SUNDAY SCHOOL FUNDS ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 12.—The general committee of foreign missions of the Methodist Episcopal church discussed today the distribution of Sunday-school funds to mission workers. The conference appropriated $35,000 for publication work.

HOW TO CURE RHEUMATISM

A California Woman Tells of the Remedy That Helped Her From the Start.

The latest scientific works state that the ordinary medical treatments of rheumatism are still far from satisfactory. For this reason sufferers from rheumatism will be interested in the success which Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have had in curing this painful disease.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have cured hundreds of cases, and are the most direct treatment of rheumatism, because they drive its poisons out of the blood. That rheumatism is a disease of the blood is shown by the fact that it is hereditary in certain families, and that there is a marked thinning of the blood immediately following its attack.

Mrs. D. H. Coates, of Campbell, Cal., gives Dr. Williams' Pink Pills the highest recommendation. She says:

"For several years I was bothered with rheumatism and could find no relief. The pains were in my ankles, limbs, neck, and shoulders. My ankles and limbs would become swollen and stiff, and my shoulders were so lame that I could not raise my arms up to my head. When I stood on my feet there were terrible sharp pains through them. I finally began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills which I read of in a paper. They gave me quick relief and cured me. I still use the pills as a tonic, whenever my work at the post office causes me to become run down or feel all tired out, and they give relief every time. I consider the pills unequalled for the nerves as they cured my daughter of St. Vitus dance from which she had suffered for six years."

If you have failed to find more than temporary relief from your suffering, the treatment is most likely not a blood-builder and you are, therefore, not treating the cause of your trouble. You should not neglect to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills but begin a course of treatment with them at once. A valuable booklet, "Diseases of the Blood," containing more information about rheumatism and other diseases of the blood will be sent free upon request.

APARTMENT HOUSES SCORED BY PRELATE

"A Wife and Parrot Do Not Constitute a Family," Says Archbishop Glennon

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 13.—In an address to five thousand people in Convention Hall here last night, Archbishop Glennon, of St. Louis, declared that divorce, socialism and apartment houses were the great perils that beset the American nation.

The modern city dweller has become something like the cliff dweller in the pueblos of the west, said the Rev. Glennon. The apartment house, whatever its advantages, is not and cannot become a home. A wife is admitted to them and possibly a parrot, but a wife and a parrot do not constitute a family no more than an apartment house constitutes a home.

Speaking of divorces the Archbishop said that every divorce granted and every divorce law written is a challenge to Almighty God—that men can make better laws than He. Divorce laws and divorce courts, he continued, are an unrelieved evil worse than the destroying angel who marked with blood door posts of Egypt and recorded the death of their first born. For love is the first born of every household and the announcement of its death by the divorce that follows is the harbinger of national death and destruction.

CUTTER RETURNS FROM LONG NORTHERN CRUISE

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Nov. 12.—Completing a season in northern waters that has been unequalled in the operations of the department in the amount of benefits provided the revenue cutter Thetis, Captain Andrew Henderson, arrived here yesterday after an absence of six months. The season's cruise of the cutter included a visit to Point Barrow in the most northerly point in American territory, where supplies for scientific observations were landed, after an interruption of two years.

Officers of the Thetis declare that the most serious of a long series of ordeals through which the cutter passed since last on Puget Sound were presented during the last weeks of the stay in Bering sea. On October 19 a trip to St. Paul island to carry the last mail of the year from Unalakleet was commenced by an effort of the most difficult character was the voyage made successful. Even then the success was limited to the delivery of the mails, as it was too high that communication could be established by sending the mail pouches ashore by a float.

RAINBOW CHURCH CARNIVAL OPENED

Women's Guild of Fruitvale Expect Big Returns From Novel Affair

FRUITVALE, Nov. 12.—Under the direction and patronage of the Ladies' Guild of St. Phillips Church the rainbow carnival and bazaar was opened this afternoon and will close tomorrow evening in the Guild Hall in Upper Fruitvale. The auditorium was converted into booths in all colors of the rainbow, which presented a very attractive scene. The different tables were presided over by the various members of the guild who expect to realize several hundred dollars by the carnival, the proceeds of which will be turned into the treasury of the building fund for the new church. Last year the village fair, which netted $300, was given for the church.

During the evening a musical program will be rendered by local talent. The entertainment is in charge of a committee composed of Mrs. W. Haskins and Mrs. W. Gibson. The reception committee is headed by Mrs. M. Wilson. Mrs. J. E. Van Arman, president of the Guild, who arranged the entire affair is chairman of the fancy work booth and will be assisted by Miss Alice Holmes. The booths are divided as follows: Mystery Mrs. C. C. Garrison, Mrs. Charles Chapman, refreshments, Mrs. Annie Finkerted, Mrs. W. Haskins, Mrs. Harold Smith, Mrs. John Mercer, Mrs. Dodge, Mrs. G. Misenberg, Miss Grace Chalmers, and Miss Emma Johnson, candy, Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson, Mrs. M. Hutchinson, and Mrs. Tom Ronald, apron, Mrs. W. Gibson, Mrs. W. Bowers, Mrs. J. M. Smith, Mrs. George Polson, and Mrs. E. Fraser, fish pond, Mrs. A. D. Powers, Mrs. J. W. White, and the Daughters of the King, headed by Miss Alice Wilson.

SOLONS VIEW IRRIGATION SYSTEM ON FLYING VISIT

DIXON, Nov. 12.—The members of the irrigation committee of the United States Senate paid this city a most unexpected visit yesterday, staying upon the arrival that they had heard of the splendid irrigation system in operation here and had felt it to be into the subject for full visit to this city.

The senatorial party, a line of opposing friends, obtained a complete and full view of the information on all the points involved in the work and expressed themselves as having received one of the most instructive object lessons of any thus far on their trip. They consider that the service of the electric pump irrigation is further evidence of Dixon than it is another point visited by them.

Among the visiting party were Senator H. C. Carter, Montana; Senator W. L. Jones, Washington; Senator F. F. Warren, Wyoming; F. H. Well, director of the reclamation commission; A. T. Davis, chief engineer reclamation service; D. C. Hearn, reclamation service; James Horstburgh, Southern Pacific passenger agent; Professor I. Anders, of the University of California; and H. Miller, of the University of California.

Hand Is Owner OF VALUABLE PAINTING

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 12.—In the belief that a seventeenth century painting of Christ's head might prove of value, Giovanni Santapelle, a mill hand who claims that the picture has been in his family for more than 200 years has sent it to New York for appraisal. It is said that the picture was the work of Guido Reni.

Native Sons to Give Anniversary Ball on Night of December 4

H. L. WINTER, third vice-president of San Francisco Parlor No. 49, N. S. G. W.

Arrangements have been completed for the twenty-fifth grand anniversary ball to be given Saturday evening December 4 at Maple Hall Polk and California streets by San Francisco Parlor, No. 49, N. S. G. W.

Tickets for the affair were issued several days ago and from present indications a big crowd of Native Sons and Daughters will make use of them to attend the ball.

Special attention has been paid to the decorations of the hall. The members in charge of this end of the work of preparation have been unusually busy and the result is a pleasing one.

The following are the officers of the parlor: President David Byrnes, first vice-president Edward Hollis, second vice-president Charles Miller, third vice-president H. L. Winter, marshal A. Ambrosio, inside sentinel H. K. DePangher, outside sentinel Thomas Sloan, treasurer Frank Martin, recording secretary David Capurro, financial secretary, John H. Nelson.

ALASKA IS FERTILE FIELD FOR FARMERS

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—That Alaska is a fertile field for farmers is indicated by an exhibit of its farm products now being conducted in this city. Agriculturalists in Eastern states have been attracted in large numbers to the display which surpasses the farm exhibits of an ordinary county fair and as a result hundreds of home-seekers have arranged to start farms in Alaska, particularly in the Tanana valley region.

USE CABLE TO CONDUCT TRIAL

Man in Seattle Will Have Fate Decreed by Judge Who's in Nome

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 12.—The unique legal procedure of a trial conducted by cable will take place today when the case of O. C. Larson, charged with shipping 500 ptarmigan from Nome in violation of the Alaska game laws will be held the presiding judge sitting at Nome while the defendant and prosecuting attorney will be in Seattle, 2000 miles away.

The local Federal authorities decided that while the birds were seized in Seattle, the case is under the jurisdiction of the Alaska Federal authorities and should be tried before Judge Moore, who is at Nome.

The matter was placed in the hands of United States District Attorney George Drabgby, of Nome, who is now in Seattle. He will cable the facts at hand to Judge Moore, Larson, who is also in Seattle, and who according to United States District Attorney E. E. Todd of this city, will enter a plea of guilty, will cable instructions to his attorney at Nome to represent him before Judge Moore and pay whatever fine is assessed.

The birds which were seized by a local game warden acting for the Federal authorities, Wednesday night, are in cold storage here. Their disposition will rest with Judge Moore.

VIOLETS ARE BLOOMING IN ILLINOIS WOODS

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—Violets were in full bloom in the woods north of Evanston yesterday—November 21. School children of the suburb are earning candy money by selling the flowers at 15 cents a bunch.

Old residents of Evanston could not recall a time when violets could be picked so late in the season. C. E. Atwell, City Forester and professor of botany at the Northwestern University, said he had never known of the second bloom appearing later than October.

WORKERS' DINE ON BREAD AND WATER

Agitators Give Up "Starvation Strike" for Meager Diet Offered Them.

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 12.—Week-weary and disgusted, more than half of the Industrial Workers of the World street orators have given up the "starvation strike" which began last Friday morning, when bread and water was offered to prisoners who refused to work.
 Of the eighty men held under armed guard at the Franklin school, only four refused to take the bread and water offered by the police this morning, and the thick aloes disappeared speedily. The five leaders and the men in the hospital ward were given warm breakfasts, which they ate as usual. Altogether, it is believed about ninety-three accepted food.
 But ninety of the "free speech" orators are still starving. "Let the others eat if they want to—we will not," declared the seventy-one I. W. W. men held in the guardhouse at Fort George Wright
 and a handful of prisoners at the City Jail echoed this idea. No effort was made to compel them to eat.
 Fierce scenes are resulting from the "starvation strike." At the Franklin school some of the prisoners, weak with hunger, were scarcely able to rise from the floor or speak above a whisper this morning. In a few cases, it is reported, the minds of the famished men are beginning to wander.

IS A FINISH FIGHT.
 Both the city officials and the I. W. W.'s appear determined that this shall be a finish fight. The report is current among the members of the order that 1000 men are coming from the South and 1500 from the East to aid in the agitation for the repeal of the ordinance forbidding street speaking within the fire limits. To this Police Chief Sullivan replies that he can accommodate about 5000 more prisoners.

Another report is that the I. W. W.'s propose to bring many women speakers here and fill the jail with them in the hope of arousing public sympathy.

NO MARRIAGE FOR AMBITIOUS MEN

H. Catlin Thinks Wife Only Hampers Him in His Life Aims

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—"No ambitious man should get married. His wife will be a drag upon him." This is said to have been the unsocial philosophy voiced by Harry Catlin, a $250 a month employee of the Union Iron Works in the ears of his wife, Beatrice Catlin, when—according to his apparent way of thinking—he made the mistake of marrying on September 17, 1906.
 Mrs. Catlin was in Judge Van Nos-strand's court yesterday seeking a divorce, and she recited his honor with many choice bits of Catlin's soul diary.
 Among the things which the husband is said to have believed are the following:
 "That a married man, wheeling a baby carriage, looks like a monkey."
 "That the only way to secure mental tranquility in a home is to lock one's self in a room and hold communion with the outside world by telephone only."
 "That a husband ought to remain out every night until a late hour."
 "That to take care of a child and to run a kindergarten are one and the same thing."
 Mrs. Catlin said that her husband lived conscientiously up to all these articles of his creed, and upon this statement
 the court granted her a decree.

VICTIMS OF BOY BANDIT ARE DYING

Janitor in Robbed Bank Is Arrested for Complicity
in Shooting

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 12.—The condition of John K. Woodward, president of the Mercantile National Bank of New Albany, and James Tucker, the negro chauffeur, who were wounded yesterday
 by Thomas Jefferson Hall, the boy bandit, was virtually unchanged today. Woodward is in a serious condition. The negro is not expected to live.
 Hall, who will have to answer later for the murder of Cassius J. Hargrave, Esq., took his arrest coolly. His stepmother, who visited him early today, was asked what sort of news the boy read.
 "Oh, I don't know their names," was the reply, "but he always kept three or four new ones in the house."
 "The boy's father says the lad is not insane," "He is just mean," he declares.
 Henry Alexander, the janitor of the bank, was arrested last night on the charge of complicity in the robbery.

HURRICANE PUTS CABLES OUT OF COMMISSION

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Communication with Kingston, Jamaica, and other interior points on the island remained cut off today, but the local cable companies reported from their stations at Holland Bay that the weather had moderated and all cables between Jamaica and points
 west are yet interrupted but that Porto Rico, St. Thomas and other places in the West Indies are cut off.

SNOWFALL IS HEAVY THROUGH MANY STATES

DENVER, Nov. 12.—A heavy wet snow is falling this morning over Colorado, southeastern Wyoming, southern Utah
 and northern New Mexico and Arizona.
 Pueblo and Colorado Springs report six inches of snow and in the mountains the fall is somewhat heavier. Telegraph service was somewhat crippled during the morning.

HEART FAILURE CAUSES DEATH

Mrs. Emily Mackie Fails to Survive Attack—Was Old
Resident

Mrs. Emily A. Mackie, a pioneer of this State and widow of the late Henry Mackie, a former banker of Nevada and later of Oakland, died unexpectedly as a result of an attack of heart failure last night in her apartments at the Athens Hotel.
 Mrs. Mackie had been prominent in society on both sides of the bay. She was intimately related by marriage to Charles H. Tower, former Minister to Germany. She was 70 years of age, and a native of New York city. She is survived by a sister, Mrs. H. V. Tower, residing in Oakland, and three nephews, John D. Isaacs, consulting engineer for the Harriman lines; Charles K. Tower, manager for the Standard Oil Company at Stockton; and R. E. Isaacs of Grass Valley. The Mackies settled in Oakland in 1870.
 Mrs. Mackie, although complaining of being indisposed, was not considered seriously ill, and her death was a severe shock to her relatives and friends.

ARCHDUKE'S VISIT IS EMBARRASSING KAISER

POTSDAM, Germany, Nov. 11.—Archduke Franz Ferdinand, heir presumptive to the Austro-Hungarian throne, and his wife, the Duchess of Hohenberg, arrived here today for their promised visit to the Emperor and Empress.
 The visit is significant, in that, being at the earnest request of Emperor William, it is further evidence of imperial relenting toward the archduke's course in having married outside his rank.
 However, the visit has caused much embarrassment at court because of the difficulty of placing the former Countess Sophia Chotak von Chotkowa, who recently was given the title of Duchess of Hohenberg, in the company of Francis Joseph.
 This was overcome finally by the decision to invite no woman of princely rank to the dinners and other festivities given in honor of the visitors. Accordingly, upon these occasions the duchess will rank next to the Empress.

NAPA'S WEALTHIEST WOMAN PASSES AWAY

NAPA, Nov. 12.—Mrs. Bellinda Jilison, one of Napa's most prominent and beloved women and the wife of C. B. Jilison, who represented Del Norte and Siskiyou counties in the Assembly during the thirty-third session, died at the home of her daughter, whom she was visiting in Chico.
 She left here Nov. 10. In perfect health, but upon her arrival at Chico was stricken with pneumonia. She was a native of Iowa, aged 62 years. She is survived by her husband, now in a San Francisco hospital; Mrs. L. B. McIntosh of Chico, a daughter; and J. O. Jilison of Oakland, a son. She was probably Napa county's wealthiest woman, owning the rich Gladstone gold mine in Shasta county.

AN HONEST DOCTOR

remarked to his patient who had been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after his efforts had failed.
 "Mrs. Weber, I do not believe in patent medicines, but I will say that Lydia E.
 Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the best medicine ever discovered for women.
 Continue to use it." This is another link in the long chain of evidence to prove the reliability of this standard medicine for women.

POLICEMAN RESCUES
SAILOR FROM DROWNING

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—Policeman Marten of the Harbor station added another name to the long list of those whom he has rescued from the waters of the bay, when, together with Frank Eldridge, a watchman for Crowler's boat house, he dragged to safety Martin Bagley, a sailor on the steamer John Winthrop, early this morning.
 Bagley had been walking on East street and had failed to take note of the fact that rapids are being made on the docks, and stumbled into the bay in the darkness.
 His cries were heard by the officers and he was saved with some difficulty and taken to the harbor hospital for treatment for submersion.
